MASON & HAMLIN'S

CABINET ORGANS,

ONE TO TWELVE STOPS, $110 TO $600 EACH,

Are to smaller churches and private residences what the large pipe organs are to cathedrals and large churches. They have considerable variety and great purity and volume of tone, and are capable of the nicest shades of expression. They occupy little space, and are not liable to get out of tune or out of order; being remarkable for their power of successfully resisting the most unfavorable atmospheric influences, and on being adapted to all climates.

They can be safely sent to any part of the world, and boxed for this purpose without being taken apart; so that when unpacked, they are all ready for use.

The manufacturers have the satisfaction of knowing that the instruments of their make have the decided preference over all others of a majority of the most distinguished Organists in the country. Among those who thus recommend them as superior to all others, are: WM. BERGÉ, Organist of St. Francis Xavier's Church, New-York; CHARLES BARUS, Organist of St. Patrick's Church, Cincinnati; A. C. EIMER, Organist of Sts. Peter and Paul's Church, St. Louis; R. HEROLD, Organist of St. Mary's Cathedral, San Francisco; A. LECOURS, Organist of Immaculate Conception Church, Lawrence, Mass.; LOUIS SCHMIDT, Organist of Grace Cathedral, San Francisco; GUSTAVUS SMITZ, Organist of Immaculate Conception Church, New-York; F. TUDOR, Organist of St. Patrick's Cathedral, Hartford; A. WERNER, Organist of the Cathedral of the Holy Cross, Boston; J. H. WILLCOX, Organist of Church of the Immaculate Conception, Boston; L. M. GOTTSCHALK, MAURICE STRAKOSCH, MAX MARETZEK, S. B. MILLS, GEO. W. MORGAN, JOHN ZUNDEL, and TWO HUNDRED OTHERS, of the most distinguished Organists and Artists of the country.

IN PRESS, AND WILL SOON BE ISSUED.

Southern Generals; Who They Are, and What they have Done. By a Virginian. 1 vol., 8vo, 425 pages. With twenty portraits on steel.

The above volume contains careful and candid biographies of all the most prominent "Southern Generals," giving most complete histories of their lives, with full and graphic accounts of the various campaigns in which they have been engaged. The Portraits have been finely engraved on steel by one of the best artists in the country, and, as likenesses, are unquestionably superior to any heretofore published. The whole work, in all its particulars, has been prepared with great care, and most careful research, from official documents, personal statements, and the narration of friends. The volume will be printed on fine paper, and bound uniform with the "Southern History of the War." Price $3. An extra Library Edition, morocco cloth, (new style,) gilt top and back, $3.50.

JUST PUBLISHED, AN ELEGANT AND CHARMING BOOK.

Women of the South Distinguished in Literature. 1 vol., 8vo, 511 pages. Illustrated with seven splendid portraits, on steel, from life, and containing full biographical sketches and specimen extracts from the most celebrated writings, in prose and verse, of THIRTY-FIVE DISTINGUISHED LITERARY "WOMEN OF THE SOUTH."

This charming book has been prepared with the utmost care, and at very great expense, and is one of the most valuable and interesting works yet issued. Many of the writers in this brilliant company have achieved a world-wide reputation, and among the extracts from their writings gathered into the volume, are many of the most celebrated productions in our American Literature. The portraits alone are worth more than the cost of the volume. The book is beautifully printed on fine paper, and neatly bound in cloth. Price $3. An extra Library Edition, morocco cloth, (new style,) gilt top and back, $3.50. Canvassers will find this the most salable work they can offer, for every buyer of books throughout the country will need it.

JUST PUBLISHED.

Third Year of the War. By E. A. POLLARD, author of "First and Second Years of the War." 1 vol., 8vo, 400 pages, cloth. $2.50. With portraits, on steel, of COOPER, BRAGG, KIRBY SMITH, EWELL, and the Author.

This volume closes with the attack on Petersburgh by General Grant. It covers a period of great interest; and giving, as it does, an intelligent inside view of all the civil and military affairs of the South during the year, it cannot fail to interest every intelligent observer. It contains a complete and careful account of the Military Resources, Military System, and Internal Policy of the Confederacy, with many incidents, narratives of campaigns, and a Chronology for the Year.

SOUTHERN HISTORY OF THE WAR.

The First Year of the War. By E. A. POLLARD, Editor Richmond Examiner. 1 vol., 8vo, 400 pages, cloth. $2.50. With authentic portraits, on steel, from life, of DAVIS, LEE, BEAUREGARD, and JACKSON, and plans of battles.

Second Year of the War. By E. A. POLLARD, author of "The First Year of the War." 1 vol., 8vo, 400 pages, cloth. $2.50. With portraits, on steel, recently taken, of STEPHENS, LONGSTREET, HILL, STUART, and JOHNSTON, and plans of battles.

COMPANION VOLUME TO POLLARD'S HISTORIES.

Official Reports of Battles. Published by order of Congress, Richmond, Va. 1 vol., 8vo, 600 pages. $3.

An exact reprint of the official Confederate Reports of Battles, Raids, and Sieges, which are of the greatest interest and importance. Prices in sets, in boxes, comprising "First, Second, and Third Year," "Official Reports," "Southern Generals," and "Distinguished Women," in cloth, $16; half calf, extra, $30.

PREFACE.

The Catholic Almanac for 1865, although still lacking returns from many of the Southern Dioceses, embraces nevertheless the great mass of clergy and churches throughout the continent, from the Gulfs of Mexico and California to the Frozen Ocean. Our returns from the British Provinces are, as will be seen, very full, embracing the new vicariates where apostolical men are bearing the cross amid the northern snows, soon we trust to restore once more the See of Garda in Greenland, that oldest of American Episcopal seats, whence in the ninth and tenth centuries Christianity diffused its beneficent rays over a then pagan continent.

The Almanac is delayed in its appearance by the late period at which many returns reach the editor. In some dioceses a plan is adopted by which great accuracy is insured, and a careful reliable return made. A printed circular is addressed to each priest to be filled out, the lines being: Name, Name of Church, Post-Office Address, Boys' School, by whom conducted, No. of Pupils; Girls' School, by whom conducted, No. of Pupils, etc. Similar circulars are addressed to superiors of religious houses for statistics as to their communities. If these were issued in all dioceses in August, to be returned on the first of September, and returns transmitted to us during that month, the Almanac might appear by November first, and be in the hands of the faithful before the close of the year.

Should any dioceses wish to adopt this course, circulars will be printed next July, and will be furnished at cost. As this, however, may not be generally adopted, I propose to open a registry of Catholic clergy, to be deposited hereafter in the archives of the diocese of New-York, and beg every priest to send me, for insertion in it, his full name without any abbreviations, place of birth, of ordination, and, if ordained abroad, of arrival here. Such a registry will enable future compilers of the Almanac to give names accurately, and preserve in an accessible place the dates most necessary. Under the present system great confusion in names occurs. In some returns, hastily drawn up or copied, names are given from memory, or M. is put down for Mr., F. for Father. The editor, without some guide, cannot tell whether these are initials or not. If the reverend clergy will take the pains to send me the few items I ask, my large registry will be always at hand for reference, and will hereafter be of great value.

THE kalends were the first day of each month among the Romans, hence a calendar was a list of the months, beginning with their calends.

The time which the sun takes to move around the earth gave the first great measure of time, the year. The real solar year contains 365 days, 5 hours, 48 minutes, 48 seconds. The common or civil year only 365 days. But for the neglect of these fractions Julius Cæsar ordered an additional day to be given to every fourth year, introducing it after February 24th, in Latin sextilis; hence these years are called Bissextile, or, in English, Leap Years. The Julian Calendar did not completely rectify the error, and Pope Gregory XIII., in 1582, ordered the days from October 5th to 14th in that year to be suppressed, and the century year 1700, 1800, not to be regarded as leap years. This reform, called the Gregorian Calendar, Protestant countries refused for nearly two hundred years to accept, but, preferring darkness to light, retained the erroneous calendar. In New-York, where the Dutch used the correct calendar, the English, on capturing it, restored the erroneous form, and retained it for a hundred years.

MOVABLE FESTIVALS AND FEASTS.

Easter, being the commemoration of the Passover, which was regulated by a lunar year, varies every year. It is always the first Sunday after the first full moon after the twenty-first of March. This was established at the Council of Nice, various differences existing in different parts, many Eastern churches adopting other days, and the Church in Ireland in some years differing in its calculation from that of Rome.

Holydays of Obligation.

1. The Circumcision of our Lord—The Epiphany—The Annunciation of the B. V. Mary—The Ascension of our Lord—Corpus Christi—The Assumption of the B. V. Mary—All Saints—Nativity of our Lord or Christmas.

N. B. Sundays and the feasts which fall on them, are not included in this enumeration.

(In some Western Dioceses the Circumcision, Epiphany, Annunciation, and Corpus Christi are not holydays of obligation.)

Fasting Days.

Fridays in Advent. Every day in Lent, Sundays excepted. The Ember-Days, (see below.) The Vigil of Whitsunday or Pentecost, of the Assumption, of All Saints, and of Christmas.

N. B.—1. When a Vigil falls upon a Sunday, it is kept on the Saturday preceding that Sunday. To fast, consists in abstaining from flesh-meat, and eating but one full meal in the day, not before 12 o'clock M. Besides this, a collation, or about the one fourth of a meal, is allowed in the evening. All who have completed their twenty-first year are obliged to observe the fasts of the Church, unless exempted for some legitimate cause.

2. In some dioceses the Friday of the Ember-Days is the only Friday in Advent on which there is an obligation to fast.

3. It has been directed by the Sacred Congregation de Propaganda Fide, that the feast of SS. Peter and Paul be solemnly celebrated in the United States, on the Sunday immediately after the 29th of June, and it is the wish of the Sacred Congregation that the Bishops exhort the faithful under their charge to keep fast on the Saturday preceding that solemn celebration.

Days of Abstinence.

All Fridays. When Christmas falls on a Friday, abstinence is not of precept. Abstinence on Saturday has been dispensed with, for the faithful of the United States, except when a fast falls on that day. Soldiers and sailors in the service of the United States, even in barracks, garrisons, etc., are dispensed by an indult of Pope Pius IX., from the rule of abstinence, except on six days in each year, viz., Ash Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday in Holy Week, the Vigil of the Assumption, and Christmas Eve.

Ember-Days.

The Ember-Days are the Wednesdays, Fridays, and Saturdays, which occur, 1st, in winter, immediately after the third Sunday of Advent; 2d, in the spring, immediately after the first Sunday in Lent; 3d, in the summer, during Whitsun-Week; 4th, in the autumn, immediately after the 10th of September. They are days of fasting, and are of great antiquity in the Church. The object of their observance is, to consecrate to God the four seasons of the year, by penance; to obtain his blessing on the fruits of the earth, and to beg of him worthy ministers of the Church. The ordination of Clergymen generally takes place, in Catholic countries, on Ember-Saturday.

INDULGENCES GRANTED TO THE FAITHFUL OF THE UNITED STATES.

On the 13th of August, 1792, his Holiness granted to all and each of the faithful of the Catholic communion, living in the ENTIRE* diocese of Baltimore, a plenary Indulgence to be gained by all, who having made a good confession and holy communion on the days mentioned below, shall visit the parish church, or any other; and if there be no church or chapel, shall devoutly recite five times Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory be to the Father, and fervently pray for the propagation of the Catholic faith, and the exaltation of the Church.

These plenary Indulgences may be gained on the following days, F. D.

From the vigil of Christmas, until the day of Epiphany, inclusively.

From the first Sunday of Lent, to the second, inclusively.

From Passion Sunday to Maundy Thursday, inclusively.

From the Vespers of Holy Saturday to Low Sunday, inclusively.

From the first Vespers of Whit-Sunday, until the last day of the Octave of Corpus Christi, inclusively.

On the feasts of the Purification, Annunciation Assumption, Nativity, and Conception of the B. V. Mary, and during the whole Octaves of these feasts.

On the feast of the Apostles SS. Peter and Paul, and during the whole Octave of the same feast.

On the feast of St. Michael, the Archangel, and during the whole Octave of the same feast.

On the feast of All-Saints, and during the whole Octave of the same.

☞ By a decree of the Congregation of Indulgences, published January 28, 1842, in order that the faithful may gain the Indulgences published by the Holy See, it is necessary that they should be recognized by the Bishops, and promulgated by them in their respective dioceses.

DIRECTIONS FOR UNDERSTANDING THE DIRECTORY.

The Prayers and portions of the Holy Scriptures, of which the Mass is composed, are, in part, unalterably the same, and partly different every day. Those that are fixed and invariable are contained in what is called the Ordinary of the Mass, to be found at the beginning of the Missal. The parts that are changeable or proper — the Introits, Collects, Gradual, Tracts, Epistles, Gospel, Offertories, Secrets, Communions, and Post-communions—form the subsequent contents of the book. As the Prefaces are not so frequently subject to change, they follow each other in regular succession in the ordinary of the Mass.

If a double should fall on a Sunday, then the Mass of the double is said instead of that of the Sunday, unless it be a privileged Sunday, such as the first

* The Diocese of Baltimore then included all the States west of the Mississippi except Florida.

Sunday of Advent, or Lent, Passion, Palm, Easter, Pentecost, and Trinity Sundays, which are never superseded; or a Sunday of the second class, which cannot be superseded, except by doubles of the first class, as the 2d, 3d, and 4th of Advent, Septuagesima, Sexagesima, and Quinquagesima; as also the 2d, 3d, and 4th of Lent. It must, however, be remarked, that the Gospels for Sundays, thus superseded by doubles, are never omitted, but are recited at the end of the Mass, instead of St. John's Gospel; and, also, that a commemoration of the Sunday by its proper collect, secret, and post-communion, is always made immediately after the collect, etc., of the festival.

But as it sometimes happens that a double is transferred to some future vacant day, on account of some festival of higher rank intervening, then the difficulty of finding out the day on which such transferred festival is celebrated, as well as all other difficulties regarding the service, may be easily removed by consulting the following DIRECTORY, as a guide to the morning as well as to the evening service of the Church.

1. The Office of every day is either Double, Semidouble, Simple, or of the Feria.

Of doubles, (so-called because the Anthems are repeated entire, both before and after the Psalms at vespers,) some are of the first class, marked thus in the calendar, doub. 1st cl.; others of the second class, and are marked thus, doub. 2 cl.; others are greater doubles, marked, gr. doub.; others common doubles, marked doub.

2. Doubles are always kept on the day marked in the calendar, unless they fall on some Sunday of the first or second class, some privileged feria, or within certain octaves, which take place of the festivals; in which case they are transferred to the first day not marked either as a double or a semidouble.

Doub. 1st cl., denotes a great solemnity; doub. 2 cl., a lesser solemnity; greater doub. marks the feast to be of higher rite than a common double; doub. is the common and most general rank of saints; semid. is less than a double; simpl. shows the feast to be of the lowest rite; fer. or feria day is a week-day, having no feast; great fer. are week-days in Lent, Advent, etc.; Vig. or Vigil, is the eve of a great solemnity.

The Sundays of the 1st class, which takes place of all doubles, are:

The first Sunday of Advent, the first Sunday of Lent, Passion Sunday, Palm Sunday, Easter Sunday, Low Sunday, Whit Sunday, Trinity Sunday.

The Sundays of the second class, which take place, also, of all doubles, except those of the first class, and of which, in that case, a commemoration is made at mass and in both vespers, are, the second, third, and fourth of Advent; Septuagesima, Sexagesima, and Quinquagesima, the second, third, and fourth of Lent.

The Ferias, which enjoy the same privileges as Sundays of the first class, are, Ash Wednesday, All Holy Week, Whitsun-Eve, the whole octaves of Easter and Whitsuntide.

In like manner, within the octave of the Epiphany, no feast less than a first class can be kept.

On all other Sundays of the year, if a double occur, it is kept with a commemoration of the Sunday at mass, and at vespers also, except the following day be a feast of the first class.

3. A semidouble (so called because only a part of the Anthem is said before each psalm at vespers) is marked in the calendar thus, semid., and occurring on any Sunday whatsoever, is put off to the first vacant day; that is, the first day on which there is neither double nor semidouble marked in the calendar. The same is to be observed of all semidoubles occurring within the octave of Corpus Christi.

4. Simples have no mark in the calendar, and are never transferred; but if they fall on Sunday, or on any other day, when the office cannot be said of them, a commemoration is made of the first vespers, and at mass; unless it be a feast of the first class (on which no notice is taken of simples) or of the second class, in which case a commemoration of them is made in the Lauds, and at a low, private mass only.

5. The following ferias, called greater ferias, take place of all simples, of which there is only a commemoration made at mass; viz., the ferias of Advent and of Lent, the Ember-Days, and Tuesday in Rogation Week. A commemoration is also made of the ferias of Advent and of Lent at vespers and at mass, whatever feast happens; but, of the Ember-Days and Tuesday in Rogation Week, only at mass.

6. If a vigil happen within the octave, the mass is of the vigil, with a commemoration of the octave, unless there be a double or a semidouble feast that day, in which case the mass is of the feast, with a commemoration of the octave and of the vigil. But if a vigil occur on a feast of the first class, there is no commemoration made of it.

If a festival, that has a vigil, fall on a Monday, the mass of the vigil is said on the foregoing Saturday, except the vigil of Christmas and of the Epiphany.

If a vigil happen in Advent, the mass is of the vigil, with a commemoration of the feria, except the vigil of Christmas.

If a vigil happen in Lent, or an ember day, the mass is of the feria, with a commemoration of the vigil.

In the paschal time there is no office of vigil, except that of Ascension-eve, which, however, is no fast.

7. When a double of the first or second class, which is a holiday of obligation, falling on any day, is to be transferred, the obligation of the holiday is seldom transferred, but the faithful are generally obliged to hear mass on the day marked in the calendar.

8. When several festivals have been translated from their proper days, they are afterwards to be kept in this order: first, those that are doubles, and then those that are semidoubles; and among the doubles or semidoubles, those whose proper days first occurred, are to be kept first; there are, however, some exceptions to this rule.

9. Coll. or Collect, signifies the oration or prayer. Upon all doubles one collect, secret or post-communion, only is said; except they fall on a Sunday, or within some octave, or upon some vigil, or in the time of Lent or Advent, or except it occurs with some simple; in all which cases, two collects, etc., are said; one of the double, the other of the Sunday, octave, etc.

10. Upon Sundays and all semidoubles, are said three collects, secrets, and post-communions; excepting Sundays, which occur within an octave, on which are said two collects, etc.; one of the Sunday, the other of the octave.

11. The second and third collects, secrets, and post-communions to be said on Sundays and semidoubles in the different seasons of the year, are specified in their proper places.

12. Upon semidoubles occurring within octaves, or on vigils, etc., the second collect, secret, and post-communion are a commemoration of the octave or vigil; and the third of the B. V. M., but within the octaves of the blessed Virgin, the third is of the Holy Ghost.

13. On semidoubles in Advent, the second collect, secret, and post-communion, are the collect, etc., of the foregoing Sunday; the third of the blessed Virgin Mary.

14. Upon simples and ferias, three collects, etc., are said; but, if the priest please, he may say five or seven, to be taken out of the divers prayers in the common.

15. Upon week days, which have no proper office, nor any saint's day occurring thereon, the mass is of the foregoing Sunday.

16. Upon days within octaves, when no proper mass is assigned, the mass is said as on the feast, with three collects, etc.—N. B. The days within octaves are kept as semidoubles only.

17. The collect of the B. V. M. within octaves on vigils and on semidoubles within paschal time, Grant, O Lord, etc., is found in the votive mass of the blessed Virgin Mary; from Advent to Christmas the collect of B. V. M. is, O God, who wast pleased, read in the mass of the first Sunday of Advent: from Christmas to Candlemas the collect of the blessed Virgin, O God, who by the fruitful, as in the mass of the Circumcision.

18. The collect of gen. suffr., or general suffrage, is the prayer of the suffrages of the saints, which begins thus, Preserve us, O Lord, found in the ordinary of the mass.

19. The collects for the Church and Pope are said in the mass of the first Sunday of Advent. The collect of the Pope is said on the anniversary days of his creation and coronation: the creation here signifies his election to the sovereign Pontificate.

20. The word opt. or optional, signifies that one is at liberty to recite any of the occasional collects or prayers, found towards the end of the missal.

21. The gospels assigned on Sundays are never omitted. Wherefore if a double be kept on a Sunday, at the end of mass is read the gospel of the Sunday, instead of that of St. John; and the same is observed when a double or semidouble is kept upon one day in Lent, or on a vigil or ember-day.

22. Where a special prayer is ordered to be said in the mass by the Bishop, it cannot be said in the place of the third prayer, which is noted ad lib. It must be said as the fourth. This prayer is omitted in all masses of the first class, and in high masses of the second class, unless it be ordered pro causa gravi, when it is said under the one conclusion. It may be said in private masses of the second class.

DIRECTIONS FOR USING THE VESPER, OR OFFICE-BOOK.

It appears necessary to explain the order, as well as the manner, in which that part of the public Liturgy of the Catholic Church called Vespers is recited or sung.

Our Father, and Hail Mary, being said in silence, the priest making the sign of the Cross, intones aloud the Versicle, Deus in adjutorium meum intende; to which the choir add the responsory, Domine ad adjuvandum me festina, with the Gloria Patri; and when five Psalms, with as many anthems have been sung, the priest sings the little chapter.

Then are sung the Hymn, with its Versicle and Responsory, and the Magnificat, with its Anthem, followed by such Prayers and Commemorations as are suitable to the day; which, if it be neither a Double nor within the Octave of a Festival, are the common Commemorations or Suffrages, and are to be found after the vespers for Saturday.

Every double has first and second vespers: the first are said on the eve of the Festival, and the second on the Festival itself. Hence it oftens happens that the vespers are not of the Sunday, but of some double that falls on the ensuing day.

To find out the particular vespers for every Sunday and holiday throughout the year, consult the Directory at the day of the month on which such Sunday or Festival falls.

EXPLANATION OF THE ORNAMENTS AND CEREMONIES USED IN THE HOLY SACRIFICE OF THE MASS.

All the external rites used in the celebration of the Holy Mysteries are intended for the instruction of the faithful. The chief design of these rites is to commemorate and to represent the passion and death of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. This is plainly to be observed in the Altar and its ornaments, as also in the vestments which are worn by the Priest.

The Altar represents Mount Calvary, where the Redeemer of the world expired upon an ignominious cross. This very word Altar has relation to sacrifice, which must necessarily be offered to God in that church in which his true faith is professed; and hence this name of Altar is mentioned by St. Paul—"We have an altar," said he, "whereof they have no right to eat who serve the tabernacle."—Heb. xiii. 10. The Altar also represents the table on which our blessed Saviour, the night before he suffered, celebrated his last supper with his disciples.

The Candles are lighted during the Holy Mysteries, through a motive of honor and respect. They represent the light of faith, and the fervor of charity, which the Gospel inculcates. They are also expressive of spiritual life and joy. "Throughout all the churches of the East," says St. Jerome, "when the Gospel is to be read, though the sun shines, torches are used, not to chase away darkness, but for a sign of joy."

The Crucifix is placed in the middle of the Altar, to represent to our minds the passion and death of Jesus Christ, which are chiefly to be considered and piously meditated upon in this Holy Sacrifice.

The Amice, a linen cloth which the Priest pulls over his head, and fastens round his neck, signifies the linen with which the Jews blindfolded our Saviour in mockery, when they smote him and buffeted him, saying: "Prophesy unto us, O Christ! who is he that struck you?"—Matt. xxvi. 68.

The Alb represents the white garment which Herod put upon Christ after he had despised and mocked him.—Luke xxiii. 11.

The Maniple that the Priest wears on his left arm, the Stole that hangs down from his neck, and the Girdle, figure the cords and fetters with which the officers of the Jews bound Christ, and led him from one place to another.—John xviii. 12-24.

The Chasuble, or upper garment, represents the purple garment which the soldiers put upon Jesus Christ, and the heavy cross that he carried on his blessed shoulders to Mount Calvary.

As to the colors of the ornaments with which the Priest celebrates the Holy Mysteries, the White is used on the Festivals of our Lord, of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and of all the saints who are not martyrs.

The Red is used on Pentecost, on the Invention and Exaltation of the Cross, and on the Feasts of the Apostles and Martyrs.

The Purple or Violet, which is the penitential color, is used on all the Sundays and Ferias of Advent, and during the whole of the penitential time from Septuagesima Sunday till Easter; as also on all Vigils, Ember-Days, and Rogation-Days, when the Office is of them.

The Green is used on all Sundays and Ferias from Trinity-Sunday to Advent exclusively, and from the Octave of the Epiphany to Septuagesima Sunday, exclusively, when the Office is of the Sunday; but in Paschal time the White is used.

The Black is used on Good Friday, and in Masses of Requiem for the dead, which may be said on any day that is not a Sunday or a Double, except from Palm Sunday to Low Sunday, and during the Octaves of Christmas, of the Epiphany, of Pentecost, and of Corpus Christi.

1. On the Anniversary of the Consecration of a Bishop the solemn Votive Mass of Consecration should be celebrated in the Cathedral Church. If the Anniversary fall on a Sunday of the 1st Class, within Holy Week, on Easter, Pentecost, Christmas, etc., the Anniversary Mass should (for that year) be omitted. Should it occur upon a Sunday in Lent, the prayer for the Bishop must be said in the "Mass of the time." Throughout the diocese, the commemoration of the same anniversary must be made by every priest with the prayer "Deus omnium fidelium" in the Votive Mass of the Anniversary of the Consecration of a Bishop. This commemoration, however, should be omitted when the Anniversary occurs on Festivals of the 1st Class, Holy Thursday, Holy Saturday, or on any of the Sundays which admit only one prayer at Mass. But on Sundays and feasts of the 2d Class the commemoration is made with one ending.

2. The Mass for the Transfer of a Bishop must be celebrated in the Church over which he is last placed; and throughout the diocese, the commemoration must be on the Anniversary of the Transfer.

3. By an Apostolic Indult, dated February 7, 1847, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the B. V. M., unless it fall on a Sunday, is to be transferred to the following Sunday, on which the private, as well as the solemn Masses, are celebrated of the feast. It is also made the Patronal Feast of the United States. The commemorations proper to the day are to be observed according to the Rubrics.

MOST REV. JOHN HUGHES,

LATE ARCHBISHOP OF NEW-YORK.

To give a biographical sketch of the late illustrious Archbishop of New-York seems quite superfluous, so many have already appeared, nor should we attempt it, had it not been usual to transfer to the Catholic Almanac the notices of the noble dead.

It may have been the lot of a Flaget, a Cheverus, a Kenrick, and a host of other sainted prelates to have done much for the internal discipline of the Church. To a Hughes and an England was intrusted by Providence the task of doing the external work of the Church in this country. Their lot was to combat her enemies, to refute their false charges, and to show that the relation which ever existed between the Church and the nations of the earth, tended to their welfare and exaltation in the scale of civilization. If we would call those Holy Bishops who labored chiefly for the promotion of piety within the fold, the "shield" of the Church. We would say that these no less devoted men were the "spear" of the Church, by which God fought her enemies, and overcame her adversaries. The work which Bishop England commenced was carried on for more than thirty years by Archbishop Hughes. He had "fought the good fight" ere he breathed his last.

The Most Rev. John Hughes was born near the town of Fintona, County Tyrone, Ireland, in the year 1797. From his earliest years he was intended for the priesthood, and was sent by his parents to a classical school in the neighborhood. Family circumstances required that he should be removed from this school, and employed on his father's farm. He felt this to be a severe affliction, but he applied himself diligently to the task allotted to him. Circumstances connected with the tenure of his farm required Mr. Hughes to emigrate to this country. He settled in Chambersburgh, Pa., where many from his own neighborhood had preceded him. In 1817 his son, John, followed him, and was engaged, together with his brothers, about his father's new domicile. The desire to become a priest animated the young settler in a strange land. He heard of Emmitsburgh, and the college that had sprung up in the wilderness. He resolved to go there, and was admitted by Bishop Dubois. He spent seven years in this seat of learning. The literary exercises pursued in the college, and the theological instructions of the sainted Bruté, prepared him for the work of the priesthood. He was ordained priest by Bishop Conwell, in Philadelphia, on the 15th of October, on the festival of St. Teresa, 1826. He and Bishop Dubois had left Mount St. Mary's on the same day—one to be consecrated bishop, the other to be ordained priest—a striking coincidence! Archbishop Hughes succeeded Bishop Dubois in the See of New-York, and the last episcopal act of the late Archbishop was to dedicate the Church of St. Teresa in this city. He was appointed to a country cure in Pennsylvania, but was soon removed to the city of Philadelphia, where he first labored at the Church of St. Joseph, and afterward built the Church of St. John. In 1830, he was challenged by Mr. Breckenridge to a discussion, which was carried on in the public newspapers for several months. It was afterwards printed in a volume, and had a wide circulation. In 1834, the controversy was renewed in an oral discussion. The debate was published in a book form, and went through several editions.

In 1837, Bishop Dubois, on account of his age and constant ailings, required a coädjutor. The Holy See appointed Bishop Hughes, and he was consecrated Bishop of Basileopolis in the Cathedral of New-York, January 9th, 1838. On the same day, twenty-six years afterwards, he was buried with the ring which he received at his consecration. During the following year he was appointed administrator of the diocese. In this city there were eight churches—five were bankrupt, and about to be sold. He resolved to put an end to the evils of the trustee system. This he did not immediately effect. In the end he succeeded, and previous to his death he had caused to be erected nearly four times that number, with ample means to liquidate any debts to which they were liable.

In 1839, he visited Europe to obtain aid for the diocese. On his return he completed the organization of the college at Fordham, which was opened in 1841.

The discussion of the Public School question began to attract much attention. The able speeches made on this occasion are too well remembered to need more than a notice of them in this short sketch. This controversy the Archbishop looked upon as the most successful in which he had been engaged.

In 1842, he held his first diocesan synod, where admirable regulations were adopted for enforcing ecclesiastical discipline, both amongst the clergy and the laity.

In 1845, Bishop Hughes again sailed for Europe, in order to procure several religious orders to supply the wants of the diocese. In 1846, he refused a special mission to Mexico, which was offered him by President Polk. He delivered a lecture in the Hall of Representatives at Washington, at the request of both Houses of Congress. In this year the diocese, which comprised the entire State of New-York and part of the State of New-Jersey, was divided. Two new Sees were erected at Buffalo and Albany. The present Archbishop who had, since 1844, been Coädjutor to Archbishop Hughes, was created Bishop of Albany.

In 1850, New-York, New-Orleans, and Cincinnati were raised to the dignity of archiepiscopal sees. Archbishop Hughes went to Rome to receive the Pallium from the hands of the Holy Father. In 1853, the See of New-York was again divided. The Sees of Brooklyn and Newark were erected by the Holy See. The first provincial council of New-York was held in 1854. It was attended by seven suffragans. After its close, the Archbishop sailed for Europe, to be present at the definition of the Immaculate Conception. On his return he was involved in a controversy with the Hon. Erastus Brooks, respecting the Church property question. The letters on both sides have been published in a volume, with a preface reviewing the trustee system. On the Festival of the Assumption, August 15th, 1858, he laid the foundation-stone of the Cathedral of St. Patrick, which he intended should be an ornament to the city, and one of the largest buildings on this continent. He did not live to see the grand idea of his life carried out. This he left as a legacy to succeeding ages to complete.*

"On the 1st of July, 1860, he made a most eloquent appeal in St. Patrick's Cathedral to the Catholics of the diocese for their substantial aid for the Holy Father, who at the time was reduced to dependence on the Faithful throughout the world by the loss of a portion of his dominions. The appeal was nobly responded to, the amount raised being over fifty thousand dollars. The Pope acknowledged the gift, and sent with his reply a massive silver medal in testimony of his appreciation of the service rendered him by the Catholics of New-York.

"In the fall of 1861, after the breaking out of the rebellion, Archbishop Hughes, at the instigation of the Government, proceeded to Europe to exert his influence in behalf of the Union cause. He then proceeded to Rome, where he assisted at the ceremonies of the canonization of the Japanese Martyrs, after which he visited Ireland on his way back to the United States; assisted at the laying of the corner-stone of the new Catholic University in Dublin, and preached the sermon on the occasion, at which nearly one hundred thousand persons were present. On his return, (September 26th, 1862,) he was the recipient of a vote of thanks, adopted by both branches of the Common Council of the City of New-York, ex-Senator McMurray making the presentation address, which was replied to by his Grace, and which was published at the time of its occurrence. Shortly after his return from Europe he delivered a discourse in St. Patrick's Cathedral, in which he referred to his mission as follows: 'I had no message to deliver. Another could have carried the message; but none was committed to me except the message of peace—except the message of explanation—except the message of correcting erroneous ideas—as opportunity might afford me the chance of doing, in the same spirit and to the same end. I have lost no opportunity, according to my discretion, and that was the only qualification connected with my going. I have lost no opportunity to accomplish these ends, to explain what was misunderstood; to inspire, so far as language of mine could have that effect, the spirit of peace and good-will unto the people of foreign States toward that one nation to which I exclusively owe allegiance and fidelity. The task was not so easy as some might have anticipated; its accomplishment has not been so successful as I could have desired. Nevertheless, I trust that, directly or indirectly, my going abroad, in great part for the purpose of aiding the country, has not been altogether without effect.'

"On the first of November, 1862, Archbishop Hughes wrote a letter to Mr. Seward, Secretary of State, concerning his European mission, in which he said: 'What occurred on the other side I think it would be, at present, improper for me to make public. I am not certain that any word, or act, or influence of mine has had the slightest effect in preventing either England or France from plunging into the unhappy divisions that have threatened the Union of these once prosperous States. On the other hand, I may say that no day—no hour even—was spent in Europe in which I did not, according to opportunity, labor for peace between Europe and America. So far that peace has not been disturbed. But let America be prepared. There is no love for the United States on the other side of the water. Generally speaking, on the other side of the Atlantic the United States are ignored, if not despised; treated in conversation in the same contemptuous language as we might employ toward the inhabitants of the Sandwich Island, or Washington Territory, or Vancouver's Island, or the settlements of the Red River, or the Hudson Bay Territory. . . . From the slight correspondence between us, you can bear me witness that I pleaded in every direction for the preservation of peace, so long as the slightest hope of the preservation remained. When all hope of this kind had passed away, I was for a vigorous prosecution of our war, so that one side or the other should find itself in the ascendency.'

"In July, 1863, when the great riot was in progress, Archbishop Hughes was requested by the Governor to address the people, and thus assist in restoring peace. He consented, and, though very weak, spoke to an immense assemblage from the balcony of his residence, corner of Madison Avenue and Thirty-sixth street. Since then his health has gradually failed. On Sunday, January 3d, 1864, at half-past seven o'clock in the evening, he resigned his pure spirit into the hands of his Creator. The last Sacraments of the Church were administered to him by Father Quinn, of St. Peter's, Barclay Street, some days previous, after which he gradually sunk, until death relieved him of suffering. The immediate cause of his death was Bright's disease of the kidneys. He was at the time of his death in the sixty-seventh year of his age.

"His last moments were marked by the calmness and resignation of the true Christian. From eleven o'clock on Saturday night, until one o'clock Sunday afternoon, no great change was noticed in his condition. He remained in the most feeble state, unable scarcely to lift his hand, or utter a word louder than a whisper, and that with the utmost difficulty. About one o'clock, Sunday afternoon, he became unconscious, and lay in that condition, with slight intervals of reason, until he died. He was surrounded at the solemn moment by Bishop McCloskey, of Albany; Bishop Loughlin, of Brooklyn; Rev. Dr. Nelligan; Very Rev. Father Starrs, V. G.; Rev. Francis McNeirny, Secretary of the Archbishop; Mother Angela, Superioress of St. Vincent's Hospital, and Mrs. Rodigues, (both sisters of the Archbishop;) Drs. James R. Wood and Alonzo Clark, and a number of clergymen and friends. About two hours before his death he was seized with a series of slight spasms, or gentle twitches. Bishop McCloskey recited the prayers for the departing spirit, and while the voices of all were repeating, in broken accents, the words of the responses, the soul of the illustrious Archbishop quitted its earthly tenement. He died without the slightest evidence of pain, peaceful, calm, and collected. His two sisters stood by his bedside at the awful moment, and one of them, Mother Angela, who has been for many years a Sister of Charity, performed the melancholy office of closing his eyes." His end was peace.

In a brief sketch it is impossible to describe the life of a great and a good man. To others belong this task. As chroniclers of passing events, we have briefly alluded to what he did for the Church in America. His labors, his sermons, his visitations through his diocese, and his other ministerial duties, will one day be duly recorded. "Take him all in all, we shall ne'er look upon his like again."

The property occupied by this institution was purchased by Charles M. Dougherty, Esq., and given to the Sisters of Charity for a free hospital for the sick poor. It already accommodates a considerable number of persons. It contains private rooms for pay patients. A large addition to the hospital has just been completed.

House of the Good Shepherd, 25 S. Mount st., corner of Hollins street. This institution, founded within this year, is conducted by the Sisters of the Good Shepherd. It is intended to afford an asylum to women who desire to abandon a vicious life, and reform. It has been but three months in existence, and already has received twenty-four penitents. It depends for its support on the kindness of the charitable and the labor of the inmates. Mother M. Ignatius Ward presides over the house at present.

Conferences of St. Vincent de Paul have been established at the instance of the Most Reverend Archbishop in the Cathedral parish, and in other parishes of the city.

There are many charitable and beneficent societies existing in the various congregations. Also numerous pious sodalities of the Blessed Virgin, of the Rosary, Bona Mors, etc., for persons of both sexes, are established in the diocese.

The Confraternity of St. Peter was established by the late Most Rev. Archbishop of Baltimore in this diocese in July, 1862. The following officers were appointed by his Grace to direct the affairs of the Peter-Pence Association: Very Rev. Henry B. Coskery, D.D., President; Rev. Edward McColgan, Vice-President; Rev. Thomas Foley, D.D., Secretary and Treasurer. The clergy of the diocese can obtain books for collectors by applying to the Secretary.

The annexed list contains the legal titles of several institutions in this diocese. Persons in making their last wills should be careful to designate the object of their charity by the name:

St. Joseph's College, Bardstown, Rev. John S. Verdin, S.J., Rev. Charles Truyens, S.J., Rev. Theodore De Leeuw, S.J.

In consequence of the war the college has been temporarily suspended, having been used for more than a year as a military hospital.

St. Mary's College, Lebanon, Marion Co., Rev. P. J. Lavialle, President; Rev. Terence J. Disney, Rev. J. A. Viala. 125 boarders.

Brothers of the Christian Instruction of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and Mary, from Puy, France; they are five in number, and reside at the St. Thomas Orphan Asylum, where they have charge of more than 100 orphan boys, whom they are successfully training to learning, industry, and piety. They have a farm adjoining the Asylum, and they teach the boys the various trades. Bro. David, Superior.

House of the Xavierian Brothers, Fourth street, Louisville, Kentucky. Bro. Paul, Superior. Brothers in the community, 18. They direct all the male Parochial Schools of the city proper—those attached to the Cathedral, St. John's, St. Patrick's, St. Boniface's, St. Martin's, and the Immaculate Conception. They have nearly 2000 boys under their charge.

Mother House and Academy of the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth, near Bardstown. Mother Columba Carroll, Superior. Religious, 50; boarders, 170.

The Sisters also conduct the following:

1. Presentation Female Academy, Louisville. Sister Frances Xavia, Sister-servant. Pupils, about 100.

2. St. Frances' Female Academy, Owensboro, 75 pupils. Sister Isabella Drury, Sister-servant.

3. St. Vincent's Female Academy, near Morganfield, 100 pupils. Sister Scholastica Fenwick, Sister-servant.

4. Bethlehem Day-School, Bardstown, 45 pupils. Sister Alice Drury, Sister-servant. 60 pupils.

7. St. John's Free-School, Louisville, 250 pupils. Sister Pelagia, Sister-servant.

Bowling Green. A new academy was commenced in this flourishing city in August, 1863, by the Sisters of Nazareth, under most encouraging auspices. Sister Constantia Robinson, Sister-servant.

Paducah. A flourishing academy, with more than 150 pupils; established two years ago. Sister Martha Drury, of Nazareth, Sister-servant.

Notre Dame du Port, Free-School, at Portland, attended by the Sisters of Cedar Grove Academy. 100 pupils.

Sisters of Loretto, Mother House and Academy, Marion Co. Mother Bertha Bowles, Mother Superior of the Society. Sisters, 60; pupils, 75.

The Sisters of Loretto have also:

1. Convent and Academy of Calvary, near Lebanon. Sister Bertha Bowles, Superior. Sisters, 18; pupils, over 100.

2. Bethlehem Convent and Academy, near Elizabethtown, Hardin Co. Sister Liberata. 20 Sisters; nearly 100 pupils.

3. Cedar Grove Convent and Academy, Portland, Ky. Sister Bridget Spalding, Superior. Sisters, 18; pupils, 50.

Dominican Convent and Academy of St. Catharine of Sienna, Washington Co. (P. O., Springfield.) Mother Mary Imelda, Superior. Religious, 20; pupils, nearly 200.

Sisters of our Lady of Charity of the Good Shepherd, on Eighth street. This is the Provincial House for a large portion of the United States. They have erected another large new building during the last year. Mother Mary Ignatia Ward, Provincial. The numbers of the Sisters is 34; of Magdalens who have taken vows, or are preparing to do so, 35; of Penitents, 45; including the Class of Preservation. Connected with the Monastery is a large Parochial School for girls, with more than 100 pupils.

Ursuline Convent and Academy, Louisville. Mother Salesia Reitmeier, Superior. The number of sisters, including novices, is 26, having more than trebled in the last four years. Spacious buildings were erected last year, and a new one is now in progress. Number of boarders, about 40; day scholars, 35.

The Female School of the Congregation of St. Martin is directed by these Sisters. Number of scholars, 250.

School Sisters of Notre Dame reside near St. Boniface's, Green street, and attend the large Parochial Schools for girls, attached. About 350 girls are taught in these schools by three Sisters. Their Mother House is at Milwaukee, Wisconsin. They are four in number; Sister Xavia, Superior.

ASYLUMS, Etc.

St. Thomas' Male Orphan Asylum, near Bardstown. Brother David, Superior. Number of orphans, 95.

St. Joseph's Male Orphan Asylum, (German,) Louisville. Directed by the Reverend German clergymen of the city. Number of orphans, 40. The Board of Trustees have lately purchased a new house for this Asylum, on the corner of Green and Preston streets.

St. Vincent's Female Orphan Asylum, Louisville. 140 orphans, under the Sisters of Charity. Sister Julia Hobbs, Sister-servant.

St. Joseph's Infirmary, Louisville. Under the Sisters of Charity; 15 to 30 patients. Sister Ann Matilda Flannagan, Sister-servant. Eight sisters; average number of patients, 25.

In Louisville there are three Conferences of St. Vincent de Paul, established at the Cathedral and at the Chapels of St. John the Evangelist and St. Patrick. The members labor with great zeal, and are doing much good. Dr. John C. Metcalfe is the President of the Society, which numbers nearly 400 members.

A beautiful Lady Chapel has lately been completed in the rear of the Cathedral, chiefly for the use of the Sodalities of young men and young women, who number together nearly 400. The chapel is fifty-five by thirty feet, and is handsomely finished in the Gothic style, with the ceiling painted in fresco, and decorated with emblems of the Virgin selected chiefly from the Litany of Loretto. It was solemnly blessed on the 18th of August, 1863, by the Right Rev. Dr. Le Févere, Bishop of Detroit, the Right Rev. Dr. Timon, Bishop of Buffalo, preaching to a large audience in the Cathedral on the interesting occasion. Under the chapel there is a lofty and spacious room of the same dimensions, intended for a Library and Reading-room.

The Sodalities for young men and young women, as well as for boys and girls, at the Cathedral, are in a highly flourishing condition, and they afford much edification. There are similar Sodalities at St. Patrick's and St. John's.

There is likewise in the Cathedral a congregation, with the approbation of the Bishop, a Catholic Institute for promoting literary culture among young men, who have a library and reading-room.

There are also Parochial Schools for boys and girls established in all the congregations of the city, in which about three thousand children receive the benefits of a sound Christian education.

GENERAL REMARKS AND RECAPITULATION.

I. General Remarks.

1. Within the city limits, including Portland, there are eight churches, besides four chapels. Of these, five, including the spacious cathedral, were built under the administration of the late Bishop; while others have been considerably enlarged, as St. Boniface and Notre Dame du Port. During the past year, notwithstanding the troubles of the country, a beautiful new Lady Chapel, chiefly for the use of the Sodalities, has been added to the Cathedral, having under it a commodious library and reading-room; while the churches of St. Martin and the Immaculate Conception are in process of enlargement, the former to triple its former capacity, the church of St. John is receiving a new front, and a new parsonage has been erected at St. Patrick's. These are encouraging indications of progress in the midst of difficulties.

2. Parochial Schools are attached to all the churches; in fact, in many cases, the erection of the school preceded that of the church, or rather one story of the school was temporarily used as a church until the congregation could be fully organized. The idea was, to reach the parents through the children, and to rear these up in the discipline of the Lord, with a view to the solid and permanent stability of religion. At present there are sixteen parochial schools in the city, besides four of a higher grade. These, with a single exception, in the small congregation of St. Peter's, are all taught by Religious Brothers and Sisters, who have thus under literary and religious training more than three thousand children in twenty schools, not far from the number regularly attending the Public City Schools, which latter, Catholics, by a singular injustice, are nevertheless heavily taxed to support—and this in a country calling itself free! It is, however, believed that, ere long, the innate sense of justice in the American mind and heart will cause this iniquity to disappear, and to accord simple justice to Catholics, who ask nothing more. The most effectual means of bringing about this result, is for them to provide respectable schools for themselves; schools which, in all their appointments, may compare favorably with the Public Schools. This has been already well nigh accomplished in Louisville.

3. The number of religious women in the Six Communities established in the diocese has also greatly increased. The total number does not now fall far short of five hundred, besides about a hundred more, belonging to the two Diocesan Communities of Loretto and Nazareth, who are attached to institutions in other dioceses. Six hundred Christian Virgins, heroines of Divine charity, present an evidence of singular vitality in the diocese founded by the venerable Flaget, assisted by such holy men as David, Nerinckx, and others.

4. In all new church and school buildings, the rule of not incurring debts, except light ones easily manageable, has been rigidly adhered to. Not only is the Cathedral entirely free of debt, but no other church, school, or establishment of the city or diocese is incumbered with a serious liability. The debts of all of them might be easily discharged in a year or two by a moderate effort.

5. By a diocesan regulation, the children of all the parishes, too young for first communion, receive instruction and prepare for confession four times a year.

Low Mass at eight o'clock, and High Mass at half-past ten; Vespers at four, followed by the prayers of archconfraternity of the S. H. of Mary for the conversion of sinners, and solemn Benediction. Also, Mass at eight o'clock, at St. Anne's Convent.

Church of St. Louis, on Pandora street, for the French, Italians, and Spaniards. Pastor, Rev. F. Bandon, O.M.I. Mass, at nine o'clock; Benediction in the afternoon.

St. Joseph of Esquimalt, (where the Roman Catholics belonging to H. M. ships attend Mass,) under the charge of Rev. F. McGucken, O.M.I., from St. Louis' College. He also attends an Indian Mission, in the vicinity of the same place.

St. Ann of Cawetchin, a large Indian Mission, about forty miles distant from Victoria. Missioner, Rev. P. Rondeau. A few Catholics settled in that neighborhood, attend this church.

Another Indian Mission at St. Joseph of Saanitch, about half-way to Cawetchin, and the Catholics living there are occasionally attended from Victoria, by Rev. F. Mandart. It is in contemplation to build a church in that place for the whites, there being two for the Indians. Measures have also been taken to erect a church at Nanaïmoo, for the Catholics working in the coal-mines.

The R. R. F. F. Oblat have opened a mission at Fort Rupert, on the northern extremity of the island. Missioners, RR. FF. Pandosi and Durieu. They keep a school for the half-breed and Indian boys.

INSTITUTIONS.

St. Louis' College, under the charge of RR. FF., O.M.I.

Young Ladies' Academy, kept by the Sisters of St. Ann, thirteen in number. Sister Directrice, Rev. Sister Mary of Providence. Two sisters have left lately for Cawetchin, to keep a school for the Indian girls, and the children of the whites, in a convent built by the Bishop during the summer. Six more sisters will be expected from Canada next spring, and they probably will go and open another school at Nanaïmoo. Measures are also being taken to build an hospital early next spring, to be under the charge and care of the Sisters. There are at present over a hundred boys at the college, and pretty near the same number of pupils at the convent. The population about three thousand.

VICARIATE APOSTOLIC OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

This Vicariate is bounded on the south, by the forty-ninth degree; on the east, by the main chains of the Rocky Mountains; on the north, by Simpson River, and Finlay branch of the Peace River; on the west, by the Pacific Ocean, including Queen Charlotte Island, and other islands adjacent to said territories, which has been separated from the Diocese of Vancouver Island, and erected into a Vicariate Apostolic by Apostolic Letters, dated Rome, December 14, 1863.

VICAR APOSTOLIC.

Right Rev. ALOYSIUS JOSEPH D'HERBOMEZ, O.M.I., D.D., consecrated Bishop of Miletopolis, in partibus, October 9, 1864.

CHURCHES AND CLERGY.

New-Westminster, Right Rev. L. J. D'Herbomez, O.M.I., D.D., V.G., Very Rev. Father Fouquet, attending the white and a large mission of Indians.

Mission of St. Mary's, among the Indians, under the charge of Rev. Father Gendre, O.M.I., who has also the direction of the school of fifty scholars. The same Father gives his care also to the neighboring tribes.

Mission on the Lake Okanagan, for the white and Indians, attended by Rev. Father Jayal, O.M.I., and Rev. Father Richard, O.M.I.

Mission at Fort Yale, attended by Rev. Father Lejacq, O.M.I. The Cariboo and Cootenais mines are in that Vicariate.

ARCHBISHOPS, BISHOPS, PRIESTS, AND CURATES OF IRELAND.

IRELAND is divided into four provinces—Ulster, Leinster, Munster, and Connaught. There are four Archbishops, one to each province—ARMAGH, DUBLIN, CASHEL, and TUAM. Commencing with Armagh, as the Primatial See, before we proceed with the next Archdiocess in order—Dublin—we go through all the Bishoprics in Armagh, and so on with those of the dioceses of Dublin, Cashel, and Tuam, making in all, including the diocess of Ross, twenty-eight dioceses. Every Bishop is appointed by the Pope, usually from one of the three named to his Holiness, as (1) most worthy, (2) very worthy, (3) worthy, chosen by the Chapter and Parish Priests of the vacant Bishopric, and the Bishops of the Province; or otherwise, as his Holiness may consider more desirable. In every diocess, the Dean, or chief clergyman next to the Bishop, is elected by the Pope, or Cardinal Protectorate—the Vicar-General by the Bishop.

ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE, FORDHAM,

UNDER THE DIRECTION

OF THE

FATHERS OF THE SOCIETY OF JESUS.

Rev. R. J. Tellier, S. J., Vice-Superior of the Mission; Rev. E. Doucet, S. J., President and Prefect of Studies; Rev. H. Glackmeyer, S. J., Vice-President and Prefect of Discipline; Rev. P. Tissot, S. J., Treasurer; Rev. T. Legouais, S. J., Librarian; Rev. M. Driscol, S. J., Pastor; Rev. F. Belanger, S. J., Minister of the College; Rev. M. Ronayne, S. J., Professor of History; Rev. P. Dealy, S. J., Professor of Rhetoric; Rev. J. Bletner, S. J., Professor of Moral Theology; Rev. J. Prachensky, S. J., Missionary; Rev. S. Jouin, S. J., Professor of Dogmatic Theology, morning course, and of Philosophy, second year; S. Schemmel, S. J., Professor of Dogmatic Theology, evening course, and of Hebrew; Rev. I. Vetter, S. J., Professor of Philosophy, first year. There are, besides, in the college, nine scholastics and several laymen employed as teachers and Prefects. Number of students, two hundred.

This Institution is incorporated with the privileges of a university, and is conducted by the Fathers of the Society of Jesus. It is situated at Fordham, in a most picturesque and healthy part of the county of Westchester, eleven miles distant from the city of New-York, and three from Harlem—very easy of approach at all seasons, either by private conveyance or by the railway, which lies along the foot of the beautiful lawn in front of the College.

The Fathers, desirous of bestowing the most conscientious care upon the domestic comfort of the pupils, have deputed to this important and highly responsible department persons of tried skill, whose training and experience fit them for the peculiar wants of an institution which purports to be one large family. The students are in three distinct divisions—the senior, the middle, and the junior—each having its separate halls and separate play-grounds, and each presided over by distinct officers and professors.

The regular classical course of instruction embraces the Hebrew, Greek, Latin, English, and French Languages; Religion, Elocution, Poetry, and Rhetoric, Geography, Mythology, and History; Arithmetic, Book-Keeping, and Mathematics; Natural, Intellectual, and Moral Philosophy.

When it is the wish of parents or guardians to have sons or wards fitted for commercial pursuits, means are taken to direct and adapt their studies accordingly.

There are two preparatory classes, in which beginners are taught Spelling, Reading, Writing, the first elements of English Grammar, of Geography, and Arithmetic.

The German and Spanish languages are taught, if required, but, together with Music, Drawing, and other similar accomplishments, form extra charges. Twice a week there is a gratuitous lesson of Vocal Music for the beginners of the preparatory classes.

For terms, apply to the President.

ACADEMY OF MOUNT ST. VINCENT,

Conducted by the Sisters of Charity, New-York.

THIS Institution is delightfully situated at Font Hill, Westchester County, on the east bank of the Hudson, about thirteen miles from New-York, and a mile and a half south of Yonkers; the beauty and sublimity of the surrounding scenery can not be surpassed.

Parents may rest satisfied that every attention, consistent with the spirit of a firm but mild government, will be paid to the comfort of the young ladies placed at this Institution, whilst the utmost care will be taken to nourish in their minds those principles of virtue and religion which alone can render education profitable. No undue influence will be exercised over the religious opinions of pupils; however, for the maintenance of good order, all will be required to conform to the external discipline of the house.

The course of studies embraces the various branches of a solid and useful education, namely, Orthography, Reading, Writing, Grammar, Rhetoric, Composition, History, Natural Philosophy, Geography, (with Maps and use of Globes,) Astronomy, Botany, Chemistry, Arithmetic, Book-Keeping, Principles of Algebra and Geometry, French, Latin, Spanish, and German Languages; Music on the Piano, Organ, Harp, and Guitar; Vocal Music; Drawing, Painting in Water Colors and Oil; Plain and Ornamental Needle-Work, etc. There is no extra charge for French.

| Vocal Music, | Charge regulated by Professors. |
| Board during Vacation, per week, | 15 00 |

The Academic Year commences on the first Monday of September, and ends about the middle of July.

Besides the uniform dress, which differs according to the season, each young lady should be provided with four dresses, six changes of under-clothing, towels, etc., etc., six table napkins, a knife, silver spoon, fork, and goblet, dressing-box, furnished, etc., all marked in full.

No deduction will be made for partial absence or withdrawal from the Academy, unless in case of protracted illness. Parents residing at a distance will furnish sufficient funds to purchase such articles as may be necessary during the Term. Pupils are received at any time during the year.

Monthly reports of behavior and application are read in the presence of the Sisters and the pupils, and distinctions conferred on those whose conduct and progress have merited reward.

Bulletins will be transmitted every six months, informing parents and guardians of the health, proficiency, application, and conduct of their children and wards.

Letters of inquiry addressed to the Mother Superioress, the Most Rev. Archbishop, or the Very Rev. William Starrs, New-York.

ST. ALOYSIUS'S ACADEMY.

Under the Care of the Sisters of Mercy.

LORETTO, CAMBRIA COUNTY, PA.

This Institution, situated in by far the most healthy part of Pennsylvania, is distant four miles from Cresson Station. There is an excellent plank-road from this place to Loretto, and conveyances can be procured at all times for the accommodation of persons going to and coming from said places.

The Scholastic Year is divided into two Sessions, of five months each, commencing September 1st, and February 1st.

Board and Tuition, per session, (payable in advance,) $75.00. The Modern Languages, Music, etc., form extra charges.

Sister M. JULIANA MAGUIRE,
Superioress of the Academy.

UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME,

INDIANA, ST. JOSEPH CO.

CHARTERED IN 1844.

THIS Institution is situated in the lovely valley of the St. Joseph, scarcely a mile from that river, and on the banks of two beautiful lakes of clear spring water. It is in the midst of a fine and healthy farming region, and by means of two great trunk lines of railroad—the Michigan Central and the Michigan Southern and Northern Indiana, the latter of which passes within a mile of the College grounds—is easily and quickly accessible from every part of the country. At the Michigan Southern Railroad depot, at South Bend, omnibuses or private conveyances can be obtained.

The University is conducted by the Fathers of the Society of the Holy Cross. A number of highly competent professors assist in the various branches of studies. Other teachers and the Prefects of Discipline are supplied by the Brothers of the Holy Cross, who are, like the Fathers, devoted by their sacred calling to the education and instruction of youth.

The disciplinary government is mild, yet sufficiently energetic to preserve the most perfect order and regularity. The morals and the general deportment of pupils are assiduously watched over; and their comforts and personal habits are the objects of constant attention. Only conciliatory means of correction are used; but if any student proves insensible to these, he is promptly dismissed from the College.

Catholic parents may rest assured that the most zealous care will be taken that their children comply regularly with their religious duties, and that no efforts will be spared in instructing them fully in the principles and obligations of their holy religion.

There are in the College several religious, literary, and athletic societies for students, all tending to promote piety, learning, and bodily strength.

The pupils are divided, according to their age, into the Minim, Junior, and Senior Departments, each having its separate dormitory, study-hall, class-rooms, play-grounds, etc, its own complete Gymnasium, with its own prefects and teachers.

Number of professors and teachers, twenty-eight. Number of students, (all boarders,) actually present, three hundred and forty-five.

TERMS.

|---|---|
| Entrance Fee, | $5 00 |
| Board, Tuition, etc., | 30 00 |
| German, French, Italian, Spanish, each, | 20 00 |
| Instrumental Music, | 25 00 |

Manual Labor School.

In this department, conducted by the Brothers of the Holy Cross, boys are taught several useful trades, and receive, at the same time, a good common English education. They are constantly under the vigilant and paternal care of skillful Brothers, who devote their lives and energies to the noble task of preparing the children of the laboring class to become good Christians and useful members of society.

Conditions of Admission.

1st. Each applicant must have attained the age of twelve years, and shall remain until he is twenty-one. At eighteen, the period when a youth is supposed to have become master of his trade, he begins to enjoy the fruits of his industry, and from this time forward receives wages for his labor. 2d. He must pay a fee of one hundred dollars on entering. 3d. He must be provided with two suits of clothes, or a sufficiency for one year. Number of apprentices, forty-eight.

The Missionary's Home,

Not yet finished, but expected to be ready for occupancy in the fall of 1865. It is intended exclusively for clergymen, and has been approved by His Holiness Pope Pius IX., who has contributed toward it $400 from his own private purse. It will contain over forty rooms, several of which have already been secured by most respectable clergymen.

St. Francis' House

Is now open for pious laymen too far advanced in years to be admitted into a regular community, and yet desirous of retiring from the world to prepare themselves, in the calm of retreat, for their passage into eternity.

Very Rev. E. SORIN, C. S. C., President.

ST. MARY'S ACADEMY,

NOTRE DAME, IND.

CHARTERED IN 1855.

ST. MARY'S ACADEMY, under the direction of the Sisters of the Holy Cross, is situated on the St. Joseph's River, eighty miles east of Chicago, and two miles from South Bend, on the Northern Indiana Railroad.

The grounds, containing one hundred and twenty acres, are beautifully ornamented with noble forest trees, rare and choice shrubbery, fruit-trees, graperies, arbors, grottoes, fountains, and an artificial lake for skating.

The buildings are spacious and commodious, accommodating two hundred and fifty boarders. They are furnished with all modern improvements. Every portion of the Institution is heated by steam, and hot and cold baths are connected with all the sleeping apartments.

The pupils are divided into three separate divisions—Senior, Intermediate, and Junior, having their separate study, recreation, and calisthenic halls, dormitories, and play-grounds. The routine of instruction combines the solidity of scientific and literary studies with the lighter and more graceful accomplishments which contribute so essentially to elevate the tone of society. The scientific departments receive most careful attention; besides regular classes, lectures are given by the different professors from Notre Dame; and the Institution possesses a fine laboratory, philosophical apparatus, and choice and extensive herbariums of native and foreign plants.

The modern languages receive particular attention, and they are freely spoken in the hours of recreation by the pupils, under the direction of the respective teachers.

The vocal and instrumental departments of music are under the control of most experienced and accomplished teachers. Independently of the private weekly lessons, instruction in the theoretical part, thorough-bass, etc., is given in regularly graded classes. This department has been enlarged during the past year, by a hall, containing twenty-five music-rooms.

Young ladies not Catholics, are received in the Institution. No interference is made with their religious convictions. They are, however, required to conform to the general rules of the Institution.

MOTHER M. ANGELA, Superior.

GEORGETOWN COLLEGE, D. C.

In the year 1785, several gentlemen—the principal of whom was the Rev. John Carroll, afterward the first Archbishop of Baltimore—formed the design of establishing "an Academy, at Georgetown, Potowmac River, Maryland." In 1789, the first house was built; in 1792 the schools commenced, and in 1798 it was designated as "The College of Georgetown, Potomac River, State of Maryland." In May, 1815, Congress raised it to the rank of a University. In May, 1851, "The Medical Department of Georgetown College" was opened in Washington City, D. C.

The College is situated on the northern bank of the Potomac, and commands a full view of Georgetown, Washington, the Potomac, and a great part of the District of Columbia. Its situation is peculiarly healthy.

The Academic Year commences on the first Monday of September, and ends in the first week of July. The Collegiate Course, including the preparatory classes, which lasts three years, occupies seven years, unless the proficiency of the student authorizes an abbreviation of the term.

COLLEGE OF THE HOLY CROSS,

WORCESTER, MASS.

THIS College was founded, solely for the education of Catholics, by the Right Rev. Benedict Joseph Fenwick, Bishop of Boston, in the year 1843, and by him given to the Fathers of the Society of Jesus. The location is remarkably healthy. One hundred and twenty-five acres of land are attached to the College. It stands on Bogachoag, or Hill of Pleasant Springs, within two miles of the city of Worcester, and commands an extensive view of the beautiful country around. The water is abundant and of the first quality, the play-grounds are spacious, and afford facilities for healthful amusements at all seasons.

After the usual course of Arithmetic and Book-Keeping, the students, according to their proficiency and capacity, are placed in different classes of Mathematics.

There are three classes of French, in which the students are distributed according to their abilities.

There are two semi-annual examinations. If, at the first examination, any one be found to have sufficiently improved, he is promoted to a higher class. Such promotion will be equivalent to the honors of the class left.

Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts are required to undergo an examination in Intellectual, Moral, and Natural Philosophy, before the Faculty of the College. They must, besides, have pursued the regular classical course.

Careful attention is bestowed on the religious and moral training of the students, who, even in hours of recreation, are under the special superintendence of Prefects or Disciplinarians.

Books, Papers, Periodicals, etc., are not allowed circulation among the students, without having been previously revised by one of the Faculty.

Each student must be supplied with, at least, two suits of daily wear, and one for Sundays, six shirts, six pairs of stockings, six pocket-handkerchiefs, six towels, two or three cravats, etc., two or three pairs of boots or shoes, an overcoat or cloak. Each student must be provided with a silver table-spoon, marked with his name.

Reports will be sent to parents or guardians, to inform them of the application, conduct, and progress of their sons or wards. Also, regular accounts, in advance, for Board and Tuition. It is earnestly requested that immediate remittances be made to the full amount.

The Collegiate Year commences on the first Monday of September, but students are received at any period of the year. Applicants from other institutions will not be received without testimonials as to character and conduct from the Principal of the institution which they last attended.

The object of the Institution is to prepare youths for a Professional or for a Commercial state of life.

Academy of the Soeurs de Notre Dame,

ROXBURY, MASS.

The Academy is situated about three miles from Boston, and occupies one of the most beautiful spots on Shawmut Avenue. The house stands on an eminence, embosomed in trees; hills covered with beautifully variegated verdure surround it, making this a most healthy and delightful site for a Young Ladies' Boarding-School. In case of sickness, the pupils will receive the most devoted attention from the Sisters, who will leave nothing undone to supply the place of the most tender parent. The young ladies are always under the mild surveillance of the teachers; they accompany them during the hours of recreation, as well as when they rise and retire to rest.

The course of education embraces every useful and ornamental branch suitable for young ladies. Difference of religion is no obstacle to admission, provided the pupil conforms to the general regulations of the house.

Day boarders are not received after the age of twelve.

TERMS.

| Drawing and Painting, per half session, | 24 00 |
| The German Language, " | 24 00 |
| Washing, per session, | 22 00 |
| Bedding, | 5 00 |

No extra charge for French.

No deduction will be made for the withdrawal of a pupil before the expiration of the term, unless in case of sickness.

Particular attention will be paid to plain and ornamental needle-work.

OBSERVATIONS.

The uniform to be worn on Sundays, in summer, will consist of a dress of sky-blue delaine, straw bonnet trimmed with white, black silk apron; in winter, dress, mazarine-blue merino, bonnet trimmed with the same color, and black silk apron.

N. B.—The summer uniform must be at the Academy to be worn on the last Sunday in April; the winter, last Sunday in October.

Each pupil, on entering, must be provided with a knife, silver fork, spoon and cup, work-box, dressing-case, two pairs of sheets, four pillow-slips, six table-napkins, six towels, dressing-gown. The rest of the wardrobe in proportion.

The Scholastic Year commences the first Monday in September, and ends about the 15th of July. Pupils are admitted at any time during the term.

There will be an additional charge of twenty-two dollars for those who spend the vacation at the Academy.

On Thursday, from two o'clock till five, the pupils are permitted to receive visits from their parents, and other persons formally authorized by them.

For further particulars apply at the Academy, or by letter to the Superioress.

ST. JOSEPH'S ACADEMY

FOR YOUNG LADIES,

FLUSHING, LONG ISLAND.

THIS Academy, conducted by the Sisters of St. Joseph, is situated about five miles from New-York and Brooklyn, and occupies one of the most beautiful spots in the healthy and lovely town of Flushing. The buildings, which are large and commodious, were originally erected for a Female College, known as St. Thomas's Hall, and will afford ample accommodations for over one hundred pupils, whilst the extensive play-grounds and shady walks make it a most delightful site for such an Institution. The location of the Academy offers to Parents and Guardians every facility of access and communication, as the Flushing Railroad makes hourly trips from Hunter's Point, and the Flushing steamboats seven trips daily, from near Fulton Ferry, New-York.

The course of education embraces every useful and ornamental branch suitable for young ladies, and the strictest attention will be paid to their moral and polite deportment. All the pupils will be required to assist at the public religious exercises of the Academy; yet no restraint in matters of conscience will be exercised.

ST. ELIZABETH'S ACADEMY,

MADISON, N. J.

THIS Institution, under the patronage of Rt. Rev. Bishop Bayley, is conducted by the Sisters of Charity, and occupies the buildings formerly used as a boarding-school by Madame Chegaray. The buildings are large and commodious, the location is upon high ground, overlooking a beautiful country, and is unsurpassed for healthfulness by any portion of the United States, receiving the pure air of the surrounding mountains.

It will be the constant endeavor of the Sisters having charge of the Academy, to instill in the minds of their pupils principles of virtue and religion; to accustom them to a polite and amiable deportment, as well as to habits of order and neatness; to advance them in their studies as rapidly as a due regard to their physical health will allow, to which, at all times, great attention will be paid.

The regular course of instruction will embrace the English and French languages, Geography, History, Arithmetic, the elements of Algebra and Geometry, Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, and Book-Keeping; also Plain and Ornamental Needle-Work.

The Spanish and German languages, Vocal and Instrumental Music, Drawing, Painting, etc., will be taught when required, but at extra charge.

The Academic Year commences on the first Monday of September, and ends about the middle of July.

At the close of the first session, bulletins will be sent to parents or guardians, giving them an account of the progress, application, health, etc., of their children or wards. At the end of the second session, there will be a public exhibition and distribution of premiums.

St. Vincent's Young Ladies' Academy,

CAPE GIRARDEAU, MO.

THIS Institution, under the charge of the Sisters of Loretto, is beautifully situated on a high and healthy location, on the right bank of the Mississippi River, one hundred and fifty miles below St. Louis. The building recently erected combines all the advantages of modern improvements—the dormitories, refectory, study-hall, and class-rooms have been arranged with due regard to space and ventilation. Every attention will be paid to the sick; the wardrobes will be properly attended to, and the Sisters will leave nothing undone that tends to the health, comfort, morals, and progress of the young ladies, so as to secure them a useful and accomplished education.

Parents or guardians wishing the Institution to furnish clothing or stationery, must deposit a sum sufficient for the expense in the hands of the Mother Superior of St. Vincent's Young Ladies' Academy.

Bed and bedding form an extra charge of $8, and washing an extra of $12.

There will be an extra charge of three dollars per week for those who remain in the Institution during the vacation.

Each pupil will be provided with the uniform for Sundays; in summer, a solid pink dress and dark green sun-bonnet, trimmed with green ribbon; for winter, a dark blue merino, trimmed with black, and green sun-bonnet.

Payments are to be made invariably in advance for each session.

No boarder will be received for a shorter term than three months, and no deduction will be made for absence, unless occasioned by sickness.

The Academic Year is divided into two sessions, the first commencing on the first Monday in September, and terminating on the last day of January; the second beginning on the first of February, and expiring on the last Wednesday in June.

It is to be desired that the children should be disturbed as seldom as possible during the course of their studies. There will be a few days' recess during each session—at Christmas and at Easter—and at these periods the pupils will be permitted to visit their respective homes.

Letters and communications to and from pupils will be subject to inspection. If children should express discontent in their letters, parents or guardians are requested to write without delay to the Mother Superior of the Academy, or to some person other than the children, in whom they can confide, in order to obtain correct information on the alleged subject of complaint.

The Institution numbers at present about one hundred and twenty pupils, and the Religious Community consists of about twenty Sisters, of whom Madam Bridget Hayden is the present Superior.

PROSPECTUS

THE ACADEMY OF THE SISTERS OF ST. JOSEPH,

CARONDELET, MISSOURI.

THE Sisters of St. Joseph having erected a large addition to the former Academy, they have at present ample accommodation for one hundred and fifty boarders. The site of the Institution is in the highest degree healthy, being situated on a beautiful table-land, which rises boldly from the west bank of the Mississippi River, and is surrounded by a most beautiful woodland country, where the pupils generally take a walk every Wednesday evening. It has every advantage of quiet and seclusion for the education of youth.

THE COURSE OF INSTRUCTION COMPRISES:

Orthography, Reading, Writing, Composition, Grammar, Geography, Astronomy, with the use of Globes, Sacred and Profane History, Mythology, Rhetoric, Botany, Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, Arithmetic, Algebra, Book-Keeping, French and German Languages; Music on Piano-Forte, Melodeon, Guitar, and Vocal Music; Drawing and Painting in Oil, Water Colors, and Pastille; Plain and Ornamental Needle-Work, Tapestry, Embroidery, and Lace-Work; the making of Artificial Fruit and Flowers.

The Scholastic Year, consisting of ten months, commences on the 1st of September and ends on the 28th of June. It is divided into two Sessions, of five months each. Pupils who enter after the commencement of a session, will be charged only for such portion of it as may remain. No deduction will be made for those who may be withdrawn before the expiration of the Session, unless in case of sickness.

Monthly reports of behavior and application are read in the presence of the Sisters and pupils, and distinctions conferred on those whose conduct and progress have merited reward.

There is a private examination of all the classes held at the end of each Session, and bulletins of proficiency sent to parents or guardians. The last examination is followed by a public exhibition and distribution of premiums.

All means are employed to excite laudable emulation in the minds of the pupils. Strict attention is paid to the religious instruction of Catholic children. Pupils of all denominations are admissible, and their religious opinions are not interferred with; but for the sake of good order, they are required to attend the public exercises of religion with the other inmates of the Institution.

Thursdays being set apart as days of recreation, the pupils are permitted to receive the visits of parents and relatives; and on the first Thursday of every month they are allowed to visit their parents or guardians residing in the city; but it is required that they should return the same day.

When parents or guardians wish to have their children or wards sent home, they are required to give timely notice, liquidate all accounts, and defray travelling expenses.

ST. LOUIS UNIVERSITY,

ST. LOUIS, MO.

THE St. Louis University was founded in 1829, by members of the Society of Jesus. In 1832, it was incorporated by an act of the State Legislature, and empowered to confer the usual academic honors.

The Collegiate Department comprises two distinct courses of study—the Classical and the Commercial. The Classical course is designed to impart a thorough knowledge of the English, Latin, and Greek languages; of Mental and Moral Philosophy; of pure and mixed Mathematics, and of the Physical sciences. It is completed in six years. The students in this course are divided, according to their proficiency, into six classes, which correspond with the six years of the course. The Commercial course, which extends through four years, embraces all the branches of a good English education. When a student is admitted, he is examined by the Prefect of Studies, and placed in the class which his previous attainments have qualified him to enter.

The Academic Year consists of one session, beginning on the first Monday of September, and ending about the 4th of July. Students are admitted at any time during the session.

The University possesses a valuable Museum, and a complete Philosophical and Chemical apparatus. The College Library numbers about fifteen thousand volumes, exclusive of seven thousand volumes in the select libraries, which are open to the students.

ST. XAVIER'S ACADEMY,

Conducted by the Sisters of Mercy,

PROVIDENCE, R. I.

THIS Institution affords every facility for the acquisition of a refined and solid education. St. Xavier's Academy has been in operation for several years, during which time such improvements have been effected as render it equal to any other educational Institution in the country.

In order to excite a laudable emulation in the minds of the pupils, bulletins of progress and deportment will be sent to parents and guardians every two months. A Gold Medal is awarded in the Graduates' Class at the close of the Academic Year, and a premium to the most deserving in each of the other classes.

The religious instruction of Catholic children receives particular attention; but the religious opinions of pupils of other denominations are not interfered with; discipline, however, requires that all attend the public exercises of the Catholic Church with decorum.

The Course of Instruction embraces the usual branches suitable for young ladies.

Plain and Ornamental Needle-Work, in all its varieties, will receive special attention.

Each young lady is required to be provided with four dresses, besides the uniform, six changes of under-clothing, toilet and table napkins, sheets, pillow-cases, dressing-case, (furnished,) silver spoon, knife and fork.

A uniform is required for Sundays. It consists of a royal blue dress, bonnet trimmed with the same color, and black plush or cloth cloak for winter. The colors are the same for summer, but the materials are lighter, the cloak of black silk or alpaca.

Every care and precaution are taken to preserve the health of the pupils. Special times are set apart for suitable out-door exercise and recreations.

The Academic Year consists of two terms, commencing respectively on the first of September and first of February.

Pupils will be received at any period, and charged only from the date of entrance. No deduction will be made if they are withdrawn before the close of the term, except in case of sickness.

St. Joseph's Preparatory Boarding-School for Boys,

MADISON, N. J.

THIS Institution is under the direction of the Sisters of Charity. It is situated in a healthy and elevated part of New-Jersey, commanding an extensive view of the surrounding country, twenty-one miles distant from the city of New-York. The Morris and Essex Railroad, which passes through Madison, renders the School accessible from New-York in less than two hours.

The grounds are spacious and well shaded, affording pleasant walks for the children. There is a Gymnasium on the ground, under cover, in which they exercise during the hours of recreation.

Boys will be received between the ages of four and nine. The discipline and mode of instruction will be adapted to their tender age. It will be the earnest endeavor of the Sisters to train carefully the young hearts and minds of their pupils. They will not receive children that have been found incorrigible at home. A good elementary English education will be given, according to the age and capacity of the boys. The children, whose parents or guardians wish it, will also be taught French, Latin, Music, and Drawing, but each of these branches will form a separate charge.

COLLEGE OF ST. LAURENT,

NEAR MONTREAL.

I. This Institution is conducted by religious Priests and Brothers of the Congregation of he Holy Cross.

II. It comprises two kinds of teaching: 1st. Primary and Commercial, in a course of four years. This includes Reading, Writing, Grammar, and Composition, Arithmetic, the Elements of History—Ancient and Modern, Geography, Book-Keeping, Linear Drawing, Algebra, Geometry, Mensuration, the Elements of Astronomy and of general Literature; in a word, every branch of knowledge necessary to fit persons for occupations that do not require a classical education. The French and English Languages are taught with equal care. 2d. Classical studies, such as are usually made in the principal colleges of the country. This course comprises seven years; but pupils who are very assiduous, or endowed with extraordinary ability, may go through it in six, or even five years. Nevertheless, before a pupil can be promoted to a superior class, he must prove by an oral examination and a written composition, that he is sufficiently acquainted with the various branches taught in the inferior class.

III. No pupil can be admitted to a course exclusively commercial, unless he has first acquired a correct knowledge of those branches usually taught in primary education.

IV. No one can commence the Latin course until he writes a good hand, and is able to give a grammatical analysis of the parts of speech of his mother tongue.

V. Every pupil coming from another house of education, must present a certificate of good conduct, signed by the superior of that institution.

VI. There will be a course of religious instruction suited to the age and intelligence of the pupils.

VII. In conformity with the rules of the Institution, great care will be taken that the classical instruction is governed by the Catholic spirit, and a careful selection will be made of those authors best adapted to develop that spirit.

VIII. Classical Course.—1st Year. Rudiments of Latin, French Grammar, English Grammar, Sacred History, Geography, Writing, Arithmetic.

2d Year. Latin Syntax, French Grammar, English Grammar, History of Canada, Geography, Arithmetic, Caligraphy.

3d Year. Method, Greek Grammar, English and French Exercises, Ancient History, Ecclesiastical History, Geography, Arithmetic, Caligraphy.

4th Year. Latin Versification, Greek, French, and English Exercises, Roman History, Natural History, Algebra.

5th Year. Latin, Greek, French, and English Belles-Lettres, Mediæval History, Natural History, Geometry.

6th Year. Rhetoric, Elocution, Greek, Latin, French, and English Exercises, Modern History, Geometry, Astronomy.

7th Year. Philosophy, Physics, and Chemistry.

IX. Terms for Boarders.—1st. The Scholastic Year is ten months and a half.

2d. The terms for board are $100. The house furnishes a bedstead and straw mattrass, and also takes charge of the shoes or boots, provided there be at least two pairs for each pupil.

3d. By paying a fixed sum of $24, the house will undertake to furnish all the school necessaries, books included.

4th. By paying a fixed sum of $20, the house will furnish the complete bed and bedding, and also take charge of the washing.

5th The terms for half-board are $2 per month. Half-boarders sleep in the house, and are furnished with a bedstead and palliasse.

6th. Every month that is commenced, must be paid entire without any deduction.

7th. Doctors' fees and medicines are, of course, extra charges.

8th. Lessons in any of the fine arts are also extra charges. Instrumental Music, $2.50 per month.

9th. The cleanliness of the younger pupils will be attended to by the Sisters who have charge of the Infirmary.

10th. Parents who wish to have clothes provided for their children, will deposit in the hands of the Treasurer a sum proportionate to what clothing is required.

11th. The parents shall receive every quarter, with the bill of expenses, a bulletin of the health, conduct, assiduity, and improvement of their children.

COMBINING

Instruction with Entertainment.

This elegant educational apparatus consists of a sphere of hollow iron, on which the various natural and political divisions of the earth are faithfully depicted, presenting, to all outward appearance, a neatly-finished Terrestrial Globe; but accompanying Perce's Globe are a number of "MAGNETIC OBJECTS" representing the races of mankind, animals, light-houses, ships and steamers, which, adhering to the surface of the Globe by the force of magnetic attraction, serve to illustrate the attraction of gravitation, the rotundity of the earth, its diurnal motion, the vicissitudes of day and night, and a number of other phenomena, otherwise incomprehensible to children.

The Maps with which the larger Globes are mounted, are colored physically and politically under the direction of

on the method adopted in his celebrated series of School Maps; thus giving to the Magnetic Globes a fidelity to nature which can not be found in other Globes. Prof. Guyot has also prepared for the Library Globe a series of profiles of the various continents, which, being mounted on magnets, and placed in their proper positions on the Globe, afford an accurate view of the contour of the Earth's surface, its mountains, its great plateaus, plains and valleys.

"The invention is really ingenious, and will greatly interest young students in Geography, besides affording them much instructive amusement."—N. Y. Evening Post.

"With this Globe, a child has become a diligent student of Geography, and enjoys no play more keenly than for somebody 'to make the world.'"—N. Y. Tribune.

"Calculated to facilitate greatly the study of Geography."—N. Y. Daily Times.

"Worthy the attention of all interested in the study of the Globe."—N. Y. Herald.

GREENLEAF'S
COMPLETE MATHEMATICAL SERIES,
ADAPTED TO ALL CLASSES OF LEARNERS.
NEW AND CAREFULLY REVISED EDITIONS.

THIS series, with its present improvements, is very popular, and is now more extensively used in the best schools in the United States than any other. The series, whole or in part, being generally preferred, is now successfully used in hundreds of Catholic schools in the United States and the British Provinces. Brother Patrick, President of Manhattan College, New-York, and many other eminent educators, approve and recommend "Greenleaf's Series" in emphatic terms. Also recently recommended by the Brother Provincial of the Christian Brothers' Schools for their special use.

I. GREENLEAF'S NEW PRIMARY ARITHMETIC; an attractive book of easy lessons for beginners —for Primary Schools. 84 pp.

II. GREENLEAF'S NEW INTELLECTUAL ARITHMETIC; a new work fully adapted to the present improved methods of instruction, but carrying the principles of analysis farther than any other work of the kind. 180 pp.

III. GREENLEAF'S NEW ELEMENTS OF WRITTEN ARITHMETIC; a cheap book for beginners in Written Arithmetic, and sufficient for some Graded Schools. In press.

IV. GREENLEAF'S COMMON SCHOOL ARITHMETIC; a complete system of Written Arithmetic for Common Schools, being sufficient to prepare the learner for all ordinary business. 324 pp.

V. GREENLEAF'S NATIONAL ARITHMETIC; a thorough theoretical and practical treatise, for High Schools, Academies, Normal Schools, and Commercial Colleges. 414 pp.

VI. GREENLEAF'S NEW ELEMENTARY ALGEBRA; an admirable course for pupils having completed their arithmetical studies at a comparatively early age, containing the first principles of analysis, progressively developed and simplified. 324 pp. Just published.

VII. GREENLEAF'S NEW HIGHER ALGEBRA; a thorough analytic course for Academies, Normal Schools, and Colleges. Royal 12mo, 396 pp. Just published.

VIII. GREENLEAF'S GEOMETRY AND TRIGONOMETRY; a work simple and elegant in its arrangements, with methods of demonstration adapted to the most approved modes of instruction, for Academies and Colleges. 490 pp.

☞ Greenleaf's Series will be furnished on liberal terms, for introduction, on application to the publishers. Also complete Keys for teachers.

Greenleaf's Mathematical Works are no untried books, or of doubtful reputation. No other works of the kind have, in the same time, secured so general an introduction into the best schools in all parts of the United States, or have been as highly recommended by eminent teachers and mathematicians.

WATSON'S NEW GYMNASTIC WORKS.

I. Manual of Calisthenics. Price, $1.25.

II. Hand-Book of Calisthenics and Gymnastics. $2.00.

Each volume is an 8vo, printed on fine and heavy tinted paper, richly and profusely illustrated from original designs, with music to accompany the exercises. These works positively surpass all others on physical culture, in harmoniously blending the scientific and the practical; and in the variety and completeness of the classes of movements, and in the adaptation of the exercises to the wants of both sexes and persons of all ages, either as individuals or in classes. In the first, all the exercises are without apparatus; in the second, complete courses of exercises are given both with and without apparatus.

To consumptives, dyspeptics, individuals in general, and the sedentary—to all who wish to secure physical beauty, muscular strength, and robust health—the use of these books will prove invaluable. They are already used in nearly all the Public Schools, and in many of the Private Schools and first Families of New-York City.

Copies sent post-paid on receipt of the price.

THE SCHOLAR'S DIARY,

FOR THE USE OF ALL WHO GO TO SCHOOL.

BY EMERY F. STRONG.

This little book is destined to exercise the young in the important practice of making a daily record of items and events. It will help to cultivate and strengthen habits of observation and accuracy; and these habits, formed in youth, will have a favorable influence in subsequent life. Such a record, faithfully kept, will prove a history of the writer's life, and its value will increase with passing years. If persons now in active life were in the possession of a manuscript diary of their school-days, they would esteem it a treasure indeed.

The Scholar's Diary contains: I. Specimen pages of a Diary, which will suggest the manner of making the daily entries. II. Rules and maxims for pupils. III. Subjects for compositions, with simple suggestions. IV. Rules for the use of Capital Letters. V. Rules for Punctuation. VI. Blank pages for making the daily entries of an ordinary school-term. In some cases it will be found sufficient for preserving copies of the compositions written during the term.

Price of the Scholar's Diary, per dozen, $2.50. Specimen copies sent by mail, pre-paid, for twenty cents.

Schermerhorn, Bancroft & Co., Publishers,
130 Grand St., N. Y., 512 Arch St., Philadelphia.

AMERICAN EDUCATIONAL MONTHLY.

$1.50 per Annum in Advance. Single Numbers, 15 Cents.

It will contain practical articles on Physical Culture, Object Teaching, Languages, Duties of Parents and Teachers, the best Modes of Teaching, the best Schools, the best School-Books, the best School Furniture and Apparatus, with histories of "the old Schools." Each number will contain a summary of what is new in "Science and the Arts," items of Educational Intelligence; and occasionally a racy Pedagogical Story, to revive pleasant memories of school days. In short every live question which will interest the Parent and Teacher will be discussed with freedom and vigor.

The best talent has been secured to prepare articles, which will appear in the successive numbers of the volume for 1865.

A gentleman of superior legal attainments is preparing a digest of PEDAGOGICAL LAW—an abstract of decisions, in Great Britain and America, touching the Teacher and School-Officer, and their relations to the profession.

A medical writer of high repute is preparing a paper upon the Diseases peculiar to Teachers because of their professional pursuits, and the means of prevention.

A very instructive article upon the mode of obtaining the true Pronunciation of Geographical Names, with the elementary sounds of various languages, is in our hands, and will be given at an early date.

A distinguished American Teacher, now in Europe, will furnish monthly letters.

Professor Arnold Guyot will contribute, during the year, a series of articles on Physical Geography.

Schermerhorn, Bancroft & Co., Publishers,
130 Grand Street, New-York City.

MITCHELL'S NEW SERIES OF GEOGRAPHIES.

Mitchell's First Lessons in Geography, for Young Children, with Colored Maps and Engravings. Designed as an introduction to the author's New Primary Geography.

Mitchell's New Primary Geography, illustrated by twenty Colored Maps and a hundred beautiful Engravings. Designed as an introduction to the author's New Intermediate Geography.

Mitchell's New Intermediate Geography, a system of Modern Geography, designed for the use of schools and academies, containing twenty-three Copper-plate Maps, colored, and illustrated by a large number of new and spirited Engravings.

Mitchell's New School Geography and Atlas will be ready early in 1865. An entirely new work: new text, new illustrations, and forty-two new and elegant Copper-plate Maps.

Mitchell's New Ancient Geography, classical and sacred; an entirely new edition, drawn from the best authorities, ancient and modern. Designed for the use of schools and colleges.

☞ MITCHELL'S NEW SERIES OF GEOGRAPHIES have been lately published, and are in every particular—text, maps, and engravings—entirely new and up to date. They have received the most flattering testimonials from the first teachers and educators in every part of the United States, and are introduced and used extensively in the best schools throughout the Union.

MITCHELL'S OLD SERIES.

NEW EDITIONS BROUGHT DOWN TO 1864.

Mitchell's Primary Geography.

Mitchell's School Geography and Atlas.

Mitchell's Geographical Questions.

Mitchell's Ancient Geography and Atlas.

MITCHELL'S OLD SERIES still retains its popularity, commanding to-day probably the largest patronage of any series of geographies published in the world.

QUACKENBOS'S STANDARD TEXT-BOOKS.

THE attention of Catholic Institutions is solicited to the following Text-Books by G. P. QUACKENBOS, A.M., widely used and everywhere commended as "the best in their several departments." "The singular excellence of all Quackenbos's School-Books is well known to the educational community. They are generally admitted to be the best manuals on the subjects of which they respectively treat."—J. W. Bulkley, City Supt. of Schools, Brooklyn.

AN ENGLISH GRAMMAR. 12mo, 288 pages. Price 90 cents. Philosophical, thorough, consistent, lucid in definition, brief in rules, original in its views, radical in its reforms, practical in its exercises, interesting to the scholar, labor-saving to the teacher, ingenious in explaining perplexing constructions, makes the learning of Grammar an INTELLIGENT exercise, makes the teaching of Grammar a POSITIVE PLEASURE.

FIRST BOOK IN ENGLISH GRAMMAR. 18mo, 120 pages. Price, 50 cents. Recently published. Clear, easy, and interesting; simple, yet comprehensive; just the book for beginners.

FIRST LESSONS IN COMPOSITION. 12mo, 182 pages. 75 cents.

ADVANCED COURSE OF COMPOSITION AND RHETORIC; Treating of the Origin of the English Language, Punctuation, Taste, Pleasures of the Imagination, Figures, Style, Criticism, and the various departments of Prose and Poetical Composition. 12mo, 450 pages. $1 50. These works on Composition have supplanted almost all others on the same subject. Hon. A. C. Barry, late State Superintendent of Common Schools in Wisconsin, reflecting the opinion of our best teachers, says: "It would be difficult to point out in these admirable books any thing that we would desire to have altered. They meet our wants in every respect."

PRIMARY HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES. Made easy and interesting for beginners. Child's Quarto; splendidly illustrated; 192 pages. 75 cents.

ILLUSTRATED SCHOOL HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES; with an Account of the Aborigines, and numerous Maps and Plans of Battle-fields. 12mo, 473 pages. $1 75. Everywhere used and commended. One hundred and fifty towns in Maine alone, within the past year, have introduced these Histories. Hon. JOHN SWETT, State Superintendent of California, in his annual report, says: "Quackenbos's History of the United States is admirably adapted to meet the wants of our public schools."

A NATURAL PHILOSOPHY; Adapted for use with or without Apparatus. 385 illustrations; 12mo; 450 pages. $1 75. Pronounced unqualifiedly the best text-book on the subject by such men as Dr. Perkins, author of the Arithmetics; President Chase, of Brookville College, Indiana; Prof. Duncan, of Louisiana; A. J. Rickoff, late Superintendent of Schools, Cincinnati; Prof. McNeely, of New-Jersey; Prof. Sheldon, of Griswold College, Davenport; Pres. Powell, of Soulesbury College; C. B. Metcalf, Principal High School, Worcester, etc., etc.

A PRIMARY ARITHMETIC. 18mo. 108 pages. 50 cents.

AN ELEMENTARY ARITHMETIC. 12mo. 144 pages. 60 cents. These Arithmetics are the first two numbers of APPLETONS' NEW MATHEMATICAL SERIES, and we claim that they are the best, as they are the latest, works on the subject. They are distinguished for their gradual and natural development of the subject, for the brevity of their definitions, rules, and analyses, and the number, variety, and practical character of the examples. The methods taught are those actually used by business men. They will be soon followed by the Practical, Higher, and Mental.

GET THE BEST.

WEBSTER'S UNABRIDGED DICTIONARY.

NEW ILLUSTRATED EDITION, JUST PUBLISHED,

Thoroughly Revised and much Enlarged.

OVER 3000 FINE ENGRAVINGS.

10,000 WORDS and MEANINGS not found in other Dictionaries.

Over thirty able American and European scholars employed upon this revision, and thirty years of labor expended upon it.

Among the collaborators are Dr. Mahn, of Berlin; Professors Porter, Dana, Whitney, Hadley, Lyman, Gilman, and Thacher, Captain Craighill, of West-Point Military Academy; Judge J. C. Perkins, Professor Stiles, A. L. Holley, Esq., Dr. E. B. O'Callaghan, etc., etc.

Several tables of great value, one of them of fifty quarto pages, Explanatory and Pronouncing, of names in fiction of persons and places, pseudonyms, etc., etc., as Abaddon, Acadia, Albany Regency, Mother Cary, Mason and Dixon's Line, Mr. Micawber, etc.

The definitions of Catholic terms have been carefully revised by a highly competent Catholic scholar, Dr. E. B. O'Callaghan, who has also prepared for the work a Table of Pronunciation of the Proper Names in the Douay Bible, a new and valuable feature.

Containing one fifth or one fourth more matter than any former editions.

From new electrotype plates and the Riverside Press.

IN ONE VOL. OF 1840 ROYAL QUARTO PAGES.

"It is a superb work, both in every thing that concerns lexicography and as respects its manufacture as a book. The preface describes in detail the important and valuable new features, and sketches the range and amount of literary, scholastic, and linguistic labor which has been devoted for years to the collection and elaboration of the materials. It is not a mending up of old plates, but an entirely new work, re-written, re-set, and in every respect so superior to the Pictorial Edition of 1859, that, as we placed the new copies side by side, the eclipse of the Pictorial was almost total. The appearance of the work will constitute an epoch in the lexicography of this country. We point to it with a feeling of national pride as one of the amplest and richest treasuries of the English language that has ever been given to the world by the British or American press. It seems almost to have reached the point of ultimate excellence in works of this class. It will be both a duty and a pleasure to call attention hereafter to its details."—Publisher's Circular, Sept. 15, 1864.

ECCLESIASTICAL YEAR,

ITS FESTIVALS AND HOLY SEASONS,

To which are added the Lives of the Saints, by

Rev. Dr. ALBAN STOLZ,

TRANSLATED FROM THE GERMAN BY

Rev. THEODORE NOETHEN,

PASTOR OF HOLY CROSS, ALBANY, N. Y.

The "Ecclesiastical Year" Contains:

I. The Explanation of all the Sundays and Festivals, divided into three parts; Christmas-Cycle, Easter-Cycle, and Pentecost-Cycle.

II. The Legends, for every day during the year. The public will easily understand that a work will be given to them, which contains more matter than any similar work that has yet been published.

The following extracts from letters received by the translator, Rev. Th. Noethen in Albany abundantly prove the high value of this work.

Baltimore, Md.—Most Rev. Archbishop M. J. SPALDING.
"I wish you much success in the publication."

Cincinnati, O.—Most Rev. Archbishop J. B. PURCELL.
"It is a most timely and valuable addition to our library of Catholic instruction and literature. I beg to give the publication my hearty approval."

New-York.—Most Rev. Archbishop J. McCLOSKEY.
"I commend it warmly to the patronage of the Catholics of my Archdiocese."

Quebec, C. E.—Most Rev. C. F. BAILLARGEON.
"I can not but desire to see that publication diffused among the faithful of the Arch-Diocese."

Alton, Ill.—Rt. Rev. Bishop H. D. JUNCKER.
"It is certainly a praiseworthy work. It will be to every family a source by which to obtain knowledge."

Burlington, Vt.—Rt. Rev. Bishop LOUIS de GOESBRIAND.
"Should the subsequent numbers be equal to this, I consider the work very useful."

Chicago, Ill.—Rt. Rev. Bishop J. DUGGAN.
"I wish we had many works of this kind in our language."

Cleveland, O.—Rt. Rev. Bishop A. RAPPE.
"I have been much pleased with it."

Dubuque, Iowa.—Rt. Rev. Bishop CL. SMYTH.
"I desire to see it widely circulated throughout my Diocese."

Erie, Pa.—Rt. Rev. Bishop J. M. YOUNG.
"It seems to combine in one, the excellencies of several other works in devout use."

Hartford, Ct.—Rt. Rev. Bishop F. P. McFARLAND.
"I am much pleased with it. The style is good, simple and earnest, and such as can not fail to speak to the heart. You have my best wishes for the success of the publication."

Kingston, C. W.—Rt. Rev. Bishop E. HORAN.
"I know of no work, recently published, calculated to produce so great an amount o good."

Milwaukee, Wis.—Rt. Rev. Bishop J. M. HENNI.
"I sincerely wish that it may become a daily companion of devotion to every household in my diocese."

Pittsburgh, Pa.—Rt. Rev. Bishop M. DOMENEC.
"I have not the least doubt, that such a work is calculated to instruct the Catholics."

Portland, Me.—Rt. Rev. Bishop D. W. BACON.

"Please add my name to the approbation given to you by the Rt. Rev. Bishop of Albany."

St. Vincent's Abbey.—Rt. Rev. Abbot B. WIMMER.

"I would wish to see it in every family of the English-speaking Catholics of this country."

THE ECCLESIASTICAL YEAR will appear in thirty numbers, of which fifteen numbers are published. Number sixteen will be issued on the first of January, 1865, and subsequently on the first and fifteenth of each month.

Price, per number of six sheets, (three double sheets,) only twenty-five cents.

Each subscriber will receive two premiums, (on the additional payment of twenty-five cents each,) namely:

With No. 15, "SANCTISSIMA VIRGO," (THE HOLY VIRGIN.)

With No. 30, "ASCENSIO DOMINI," (ASCENSION OF CHRIST.)

These splendid engravings, on account of their excellent execution, and being copies of original oil-paintings by eminent masters, are of far greater value than the small steel engravings subscribers mostly receive with similar publications. Being twenty-two inches wide and twenty-eight inches high, they will be an ornament to any parlor. The Holy Virgin as well as the Son of God are in full figure, elegantly colored upon a black ground, with printed symbolic border. The retail price of each engraving is $2. Both premiums, therefore, almost equal the price of the whole work. Notwithstanding, we only demand an additional payment of twenty-five cents for each picture, for the purpose of paying import-expenses.

This work can be had of all Booksellers, Agents, and News-carriers through the United States and Canada. Whoever will send $1.50 will have six numbers of the work sent to him free of postage.

BENZIGER BROTHERS.

NEW-YORK: 9 DEY STREET.

CINCINNATI:

VINE, BETWEEN LONGWORTH AND SIXTH STS.

We take much pleasure in informing our respected patrons and friends, that we have lately enlarged our business in different ways, and that our facilities in all its different branches are now superior to those of any other house in this country.

Having removed our business in New-York from 150 William Street to 9 DEY STREET, the third house west of Broadway, where we occupy now four very fine lofts—we have imported for this fall a larger, finer, and much better assorted stock of all goods in our line, than ever before.

Our stock of CHURCH-ORNAMENTS, VESTMENTS, MATERIALS for VESTMENTS, STATUES, OIL-PAINTINGS, PICTURES, ENGRAVINGS, BEADS, MEDALS, CROSSES, etc., etc., is now very large, and has been completed by a very fine assortment of religious articles of different kinds, selected in Europe by a member of our firm.

We feel confident that we have now the best stock in this country of MISSALS, BREVIARIES, and all kinds of liturgical books—Mechlin, Paris, and Ratisbone editions—also of other Latin works, such as:

CORNELLI A LAPIDE, Commentarii; GURY, Compendium theolog.; BOUVIER, institutiones theol. and philosoph; LIGUORI, theolog. moralis; PERRONE, prælectiones; ROTHENFLUE, institutiones philosoph.; BIBLIA SACRA; Catechismus, Canones et Decreta Concilii Tridentini; AUGUSTINI, BERNARDI, CHRYSOSTOMI opera (Migne's editions)—and many others.

We have added materially to the stock of our own publications and are enabled now to sell the publications of almost all the English Catholic publishers of this country at the very same terms—at wholesale as well as at retail—as the publishers themselves. Orders for Paper, Copy-Books, Pens and other Stationeries for schools and seminaries will also be attended to by us.

Peter's CATHOLIC CHURCH MUSIC with Latin words, arrannged with an accompaniment for the piano or organ—always on hand.

Having lately purchased the business of Mr. Wm. Dietrich, who has been engaged for the last ten years in manufacturing Chalices, Ciboriums, Remonstrances and many other Church Articles, we are happy to inform our friends, that all orders for such articles will, from this day, be filled with promptness, and at comparatively lower prices, than heretofore. Repairing, replating, and regilding of Church-vessels will be done by us in good manner and at low prices.

Our terms are Net Cash.

We are sorry not to be able to give price-lists of our imported goods; these prices being controlled entirely by the price of gold, it is not possible under present circumstances to make a list, that could be used for any length of time.

All inquiries for prices will be answered immediately.

We sincerely thank our respected patrons and friends for all past favors, and beg for a kind continuance of the same, assuring them, that we shall in all cases put our prices at the very lowest figures circumstances will permit.

IMPROVED HORIZONTAL

MANGLES.

These Mangles are labor-saving machines, and are invaluable in hotels, laundries, or private families, as they entirely supersede the use of ironing; smoothing table linen, sheets, etc., with great rapidity, beauty, and without fuel. A person with one of these machines, may do as much work as six with smoothing irons. They can be seen in operation at the Astor, St. Nicholas, Metropolitan, and the principal hotels in the city; also in a number of private families. The proprietors will give undoubted references as to their utility and use. Price from $40 to $90. Liberal terms to Wholesale Dealers.

N. B.—They can be used with steam power.

REFORMING THE WORLD.

BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL.

PHILOSOPHERS, for wisdom famed,
To mend the world full long have aimed,
Or rather, we should say,
They strive the people to improve
Who are ordained to breathe and move
On this vast ball of clay.

But there's a proverb, old and true,
Which shows us how we all may do
Something to the effect
Of bringing naughty human-kind
Into a better frame of mind,
And morals more correct.

The proverb says, "Let each mend one,"
And then the great work will be done;
So pause not to bemoan
Your neighbor's faults, but if you'd see
Less errors in the world to be,
Then first reform your own.

For instance, do not you profess,
A scorn for others' shabby dress,
While you yourself neglect
To seek out Bennett's Tower so tall,
And from the vast stock at that Hall
A handsome suit select.

X LINE OF LONDON PACKETS.

Composed of first-class vessels, sail every ten days from New-York and London.

The above-named ships are too well known to require any recommendation; suffice it that the same attention to the comfort of passengers, which has given this Line such world-wide popularity, will continue to be observed by both Captains and Owners.

Persons wishing to send for their friends will please take notice that it is not necessary for them to wait for any Agent or Captain's letter, but as soon as they are ready, go to Liverpool and present the Certificate at the office, first apprising them of their coming.

Each ship carries an experienced surgeon. Liberal supplies of provisions of the best quality served daily.

When those sent for decline coming, the money is always refunded, on producing the Certificate and Receipt.

Persons living out of the city, and who wish to visit Europe, would do well to secure their passage before leaving home, either from our Agent, or by letter, inclosing a deposit; they will thus avoid being imposed upon on their arrival in New-York.

REMITTANCES TO ENGLAND, IRELAND, SCOTLAND, Etc.

LETTERS OF CREDIT and DRAFTS, payable in any part of Great Britain and Ireland, or the Continent of Europe, can always be obtained at the lowest rates; an experience of over twenty-five years has enabled us to perfect this branch of our business, so that of the millions of dollars remitted through us not a single loss has occurred.

Persons in the COUNTRY, wishing to remit MONEY or send for their FRIENDS, by inclosing us the amount they wish sent, WITH THE NAME AND ADDRESS of the person to receive it—or, if for Passage, the names, ages and proper address of the parties to be sent for—the necessary CERTIFICATE or DRAFT will be promptly forwarded to the parties for whom it is intended, or returned to the party paying the money, with the receipt for the same, AS THEY MAY DESIRE.

Applicants for information will please inclose a Post-Office stamp, to insure prompt reply.

TO PRINTERS AND PUBLISHERS.

THE undersigned beg to call your attention to their NEW SERIES OF SCOTCH CUT FACES, from Pearl to Pica, just finished, (having been gotten up with a view to DURABILITY in newspaper printing,) specimens of which can be furnished on application; surpassing, if possible, their Original Scotch Cut Faces, which have given such universal satisfaction throughout the United States, the Canadas, and South-America.

THE FANCY TYPE DEPARTMENT

exhibits an unsurpassable quantity of styles, of Home Origin, and selected from England, France and Germany. And their NEW AMERICAN SCRIPTS, ROUND HAND, and ITALIAN SCRIPTS, BORDERING, etc., are not to be excelled in this or any other country; and this the undersigned make bold to say of their specimens—as they have reached a point originally aimed after—that is, to excel in quality of the articles furnished, and in the variety of styles presented for selection—surpassing all similar establishments. The several styles have only to be seen to be appreciated.

Particular attention is called to their German Department, wherein are shown as splendid GERMAN FACES and STYLES as can be seen in the German Confederation or the United States; particular attention having been given to the selection, in obtaining the styles from the best type foundries throughout Germany, whether for Book, Job, or Newspaper printing.

SETON HALL COLLEGE,

SOUTH-ORANGE, N. J.

This College is conducted by Secular Priests, aided by Lay Professors, under the immediate supervision of the Right Rev. J. Roosevelt Bayley, D.D.

The Domestic Department and the Infirmary are under the care of the Sisters of Charity. The building, grounds, and neighborhood are all that could be desired. It is situated three and a half miles from Newark, and twelve from New-York City.

Seton Hall College has been founded to provide Catholic parents with an institution combining a superior education with the strictest attention to the manners, morals, and personal habits of the students, and some regard to the selection of the companions of their children. Consequently, only a limited number of students is received.

For further information, references, etc., address

REV. B. J. McQUAID,

LIBRARY OF IRISH NOVELS.

SADLIERS'

UNIFORM EDITION

OF THE WORKS OF

THE BROTHERS BANIM,

("THE O'HARA FAMILY,")

THE DISTINGUISHED IRISH NOVELISTS.

D. & J. SADLIER & CO. have great pleasure in announcing that they have in press a new and uniform edition of the inimitable works of these distinguished Irish writers, revised, with introduction and notes, etc., by MICHAEL BANIM, Esq., the survivor of the two original writers of the "Tales of the O'Hara Family." The following stories comprise the complete works of the "O'Hara Family:"

THE PEEP O' DAY AND CROHOORE OF THE BILLHOOK.
THE CROPPY.
THE BOYNE WATER.
THE MAYOR OF WINDGAP.
THE BIT O' WRITIN'.
THE DENOUNCED, AND THE LAST BARON OF CRANA.
LORD CLANGORE; OR, THE ANGLO-IRISH.
THE GHOST-HUNTER AND HIS FAMILY.
THE FETCHES, AND PETER OF THE CASTLE.
THE NOWLANS.
FATHER CONNELL, AND OTHER TALES.
THE SMUGGLER.

They are now being re-published in Dublin, under the immediate supervision of Michael Banim, the surviving member of the "O'Hara Family," whose "Tales" so long delighted the British and Irish public. It is to be hoped that the American public will hail with satisfaction the opportunity now offered them for the first time of obtaining the complete works of John and Michael Banim, who, with the exception of Gerald Griffin, are the best and most thoroughly national novelists whom Ireland has yet produced.

The work will be issued in parts, at 25 cents each.

This will be the only complete and uniform edition of Banim's works ever published.

The Attention of Canvassers is invited to the following Popular Works Published by us in Numbers.

NEW AND ELEGANT

ILLUSTRATED WORKS,

Published with the Approbation of the Most Rev. John Hughes, D.D., Archbishop of New-York.

LIFE OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, MOTHER OF GOD; with the history of the devotion to her, to which is added

THE LIVES OF ST. JOSEPH, ST. JOACHIM, AND ST. ANNE. Translated from the French of Abbé Orsini, by Mrs. J. Sadlier. To be completed in twenty-eight parts, with a fine steel engraving in each.

THE HISTORY OF THE LIFE OF OUR LORD AND SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST. Also,

THE HISTORY OF THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES. From the French of Father De Ligney, by Mrs. J. Sadlier. To be completed in twenty-five parts, with a fine steel engraving in each. A new edition of

THE CATHOLIC FAMILY BIBLE; with Notes by Bishop Challoner. To be completed in forty parts, with a fine steel engraving in each. This edition is printed on fine sized and calendered paper, and the type is surrounded by a very handsome engraved border. It is illustrated with forty fine steel engravings, and a very beautiful colored title. This is the cheapest and handsomest edition of the Douay Bible published.

BUTLER'S LIVES OF THE SAINTS. Each part illustrated with a fine steel engraving. This new edition is printed in quarto form, uniform with the "Life of the Blessed Virgin." The letter-press is surrounded by a very elegant engraved border, which adds much to the appearance of the work. We have no hesitation in saying that it is the most complete, as well as the most beautiful edition of the "Lives of the Saints" published. Persons who wish to obtain "Butler's Lives of the Saints" as the author left it, must be sure that they get SADLIER'S EDITION. We mention this, because there is an edition, published in numbers, by a Protestant firm in this city, in which the notes, and some of the lives, have been left out. The author's notes in our edition form about one fifth of the entire work, and it is taking a most unwarrantable liberty with the work to leave them out. Our edition is complete. The notes are the most instructive portion of the work. For instance: there is one note in our edition, "On the Writings of St. John Chrysostom," which occupies TWENTY-THREE PAGES OF SMALL TYPE, and all that is left out of the mutilated edition.

IN PRESS.

THE COMPLETE WORKS OF THE BROTHERS BANIM, ("THE O'HARA FAMILY,") the distinguished Irish novelists. To be issued in parts at an early day. As a complete and uniform addition of Banim's works is not to be found for sale in this country, it is to be hoped that the American public will encourage our undertaking.

IN PREPARATION.

MACGEOGHEGAN'S HISTORY OF IRELAND; with a continuation to the present time.

Marshall's Great Work: the Contrast between Protestant and Catholic Missions.

CHRISTIAN MISSIONS: THEIR AGENTS AND THEIR RESULTS.

By T. W. M. MARSHALL.

MR. MARSHALL, the author of the foregoing work, is an eminent Catholic gentleman of England, formerly a clergyman of the Established Church. As such, he was favorably known as the author of the best work on Episcopacy that has been written by any Protestant. His History of Missions is a work of extensive research and profound interest. The subject is one of great importance, including not only Catholic, but Protestant missions; a complete history of which is given as carried on in modern times in China, India, Ceylon, Antipodes, Oceanica, Africa, Levant, Syria, and Armenia, and North and South-America. In treating the latter branch of his subject, namely, Protestant Missions, Mr. Marshall has cited an immense number of Protestant authorities, all concurring to prove with irresistible force the utter impotency of Protestant efforts to Christianize the heathen. The striking contrast exhibited by Catholic missions is clearly and eloquently portrayed. The work is one of the most valuable contributions to Catholic literature that has been given to the press in recent times. Its extensive circulation cannot fail to do great good, and it is therefore respectfully recommended by the American publishers to the patronage of the clergy and laity.

The present is being printed from advanced sheets of the second edition, for which we made arrangements with the author. It has undergone a thorough revision, and over two hundred new authorities have been quoted by the author, making the work as complete as possible.

As the work cost several thousand dollars to get out, the publishers trust that all who feel an interest in the circulation of good books will not only purchase it themselves, but will also induce their friends and neighbors to do likewise.

TERMS.—The work is published in two 8vo volumes, of nearly 700 pages each, cloth extra, $5; half morocco, $7.

WE have been honored by commendatory letters from several of our Archbishops and Bishops in relation to this great work. Their opinion of its merits, and the degree of consideration to which it is entitled, will be best understood from their own words:

Messrs. Sadlier & Co.: ALBANY, March 22, 1864.

DEAR SIRS: I have to thank you very sincerely for the handsome copy which you have sent me of Marshall's "Christian Missions." The work is a most admirable one, fully deserving of all the high encomiums which have already been passed upon it. The important subject of which it treats has never before been discussed in such a thorough and masterly manner. We ought all to feel greatly obliged to you for placing this valuable book within our reach, by the publication of an American edition. It is to be hoped that your enterprise will be rewarded by a liberal and wide-spread patronage.

With best wishes and regards, I remain

Your most obedient servant in Christ,

✠ JOHN, Bishop of Albany,
(Now Archbishop of New-York.)

LOUISVILLE, March 31, 1864.

Messrs. D. & J. Sadlier & Co.:

GENTLEMEN: I return you my sincere thanks for the copy you sent me of "Christian Missions," by T. W. M. Marshall. I have looked over the two volumes with much pleasure and great interest. The author has given evidence of great industry, most extensive research, and, at the same time, of much moderation and logical acumen. He seems to have almost exhausted an important subject, which had been already handled with considerable ability, in some of its departments, by other distinguished writers. His research takes in the whole field of missionary labor in the various quarters of the globe, exhibiting, along with the agents employed, the results obtained.

Christ having commissioned His Apostles "to teach all nations," and to bring them into the "one fold of the one Shepherd," no more important inquiry could be made than that into what may be justly regarded as the great question of Church history—who have actually fulfilled this commission, the ministers of the dissenting sects, or the priests and bishops of the Catholic Church? Those who have fulfilled the commission, by actually bringing into the Christian fold all those nations which have been converted from paganism to Christianity, establish, by the fact, their claim to be the true successors of the Apostles, by exhibiting the blessed fruits of the apostleship; according to our Saviour's declaration, adopted as the motto of the present work—"By their fruits ye shall know them." Those, on the contrary, who after all their pretentious boasting, and their vast expenditure of money, have failed in their efforts to fulfil the commission, and have gathered comparatively no fruits which "remain," as conclusively prove, by the fact, that they are not the successors of the Apostles, nor the heirs of the promises made to them. They are a living evidence of the truth of what our Saviour said: "He that gathereth not with me scattereth."

The author of this extensive work of Marshall goes fully into the inquiry, and clearly establishes the fact, on cumulative testimony chiefly Protestant, that the ministers of the Catholic Church alone have succeeded, in all ages and in all countries, in the great work of converting the nations; and that Protestant missionary labor, even on the showing of those most interested in them, have proved a failure, by remaining almost entirely barren of results.

The two missionary fields are placed side by side, and are surveyed in all their length and breadth. The one turns out to be comparatively a barren waste, with scarcely an oasis to break the dull monotony of the dreary landscape; the other proves to be a smilling garden, rich in fruits, and strewn with flowers. The witnesses are Protestant, and their testimony settles conclusively the question of comparative fertility. The result is the more remarkable, as the human resources and means which have been employed on fertilizing what has turned out to be a desert, have been a hundred fold more abundant than those employed in cultivating the garden. Truly, "the finger of God is here!"

I hope that every Catholic, and in fact every family in the country, will obtain a copy of this most learned, interesting, and instructive work. In a new edition, it might be well to add a preface or introduction and a table of contents, exhibiting its scope at a glance. The analytical tables at the end are admirable.

Yours, truly,

✠ M. J. SPALDING, Bishop of Louisville,
(Now Archbishop of Baltimore.)

CINCINNATI, 8th April, 1864.

Messrs. Sadlier & Co., New-York:

GENTLEMEN: I have received the copy of Marshall's "Christian Missions"—your edition—which you have had the kindness to send me. I procured a copy of this valuable work soon after its publication in London, and read it with untiring interest and much instruction. I thank you, with the American public, for its reprint, and I have expressed my opinion of its merits in this week's Catholic Telegraph. I hope it will be generally read, and that you will have no reason to regret the expense you have incurred in its republication.

Very respectfully,

✠ J. B. PURCELL,
Archbishop of Cincinnati.

---

ST. LOUIS, March 18, 1864.

Messrs. D. & J. Sadlier & Co.:

GENTLEMEN: I have the honor to thank you for a copy of Marshall's "Christian Missions," which I hope will attain that wide circulation to which its peculiarly interesting character entitles it.

I remain, gentlemen,
Your obedient servant in Christ,

✠ PETER RICHARD,
Archbishop.

---

HALIFAX, June 2, 1864.

MY DEAR SIR: Your much-prized gift of the two beautiful volumes on the "Christian Missions," by T. W. M. Marshall, for which I am deeply thankful, did not come to hand until after my return from Bermuda, a week since. I have read over a large portion of the first volume, and I have no hesitation in saying that besides its unquestioned literary merit of a high order, it puts forth the whole force and truth of Catholicity in a more tangible and irresistible manner than any controversial work I have seen. In this practical age, and in a country like America, the publication of such a work and in so respectable a form, is eminently suited to the times in which we live. As a repertory of most useful information, and a book of reference on modern Church history, I am convinced it ought to be in the hands of every ecclesiastic, and of all those interested in the spread of God's only religion on the earth.

With many thanks for your valuable present, I am, dear sir,
Yours, very faithfully in Christ,

✠ THOMAS L. CONNOLLY,
Archbishop of Halifax.

---

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 10, 1864.

D. & J. Sadlier & Co.:

DEAR SIRS: As yet I have only had time to glance hastily over your edition of Marshall's "Christian Missions." But I had seen the English edition, and am delighted at finding it republished here, at a price that must secure it a very wide circulation.

The work can hardly fail to do much good in this country. By a vast array of facts most admirably arranged, the author proves the utter sterility of all Protestant missions, even when sustained by the most lavish expenditure of money. Can this fail to direct the zeal and liberality of our Protestant countrymen into some more practical channel? His other class of facts, no less striking, in which he shows the great success of Catholic missionary enterprise, even when unsupported by human means and when obliged to struggle with difficulties apparently insurmountable, should convince all that the conversion of pagan nations depends on something higher than money and books.

You have done a good service to the cause of truth by the publication of this noble work, and I beg leave to thank you for it.

Very sincerely yours in Christ,

✠ F. P. MCFARLAND,
Bishop of Hartford.

NEWARK, March 14, 1864.

Messrs. D. & J. Sadlier, New-York:

GENTLEMEN: I have received your letter, requesting my opinion of Mr. Marshall's work entitled "Christian Missions." Any one who has read it can have but one opinion about it. It is one of the most interesting and instructive books which has been published in our day. Catholics should read it, in order that they may learn what the Church is doing in this most important matter; and Protestants ought to read it, not only that they may learn what the Church is doing, but may find out what their ministers are not doing. It will be much easier for them to read it (for it is, in addition to its other merits, a most amusing book) than to escape from the conclusions which it will force in upon their minds, if they be "men of good will."

I remain, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
✠ J. ROOSEVELT BAYLEY,
Bishop of Newark.

BUFFALO, March 12, 1864.

DEAR AND RESPECTED FRIENDS: In the name of the zealous faithful who remember that "God gave to every one commandment concerning his neighbor;" and in the name of thousands, yet outside the Church, yet groping their way in darkness and doubt, towards the light and truth for which their souls yearn, allow me to thank you for your late most opportune publication of "Christian Missions," by Marshall. In a thousand varied forms, the enemies of Holy Church misuse against her the Saviour's words: "By their fruits you shall know them." Rev. W. J. Kipp, afterwards Protestant Bishop of California, says: "Look over the world and read the history of the Jesuit missions. After one or two centuries, they have always come to naught. There is not a recorded instance of their permanency, or of their spreading, each generation, wider and deeper, like our own missions in India. . . . . . Must there not have been something wrong in the whole system, some grievous error mingling with their teaching?" Taunts of the same kind are being continually repeated.

The noble work you have just published gives in a most interesting form, and often with thrilling effect, unanswerable evidence from Protestants themselves, that Protestant missions always have been, now are, and promise ever to be, a humbug and a failure; whilst Protestant writers of high standing, and of undoubted veracity, are adduced to prove the wonderful success of Catholic missions, in spite of the opposing wealth and power of individuals, and even of governments, who descend to mean artifices and cruelties to build up the Protestant and to destroy the Catholic missions. Be he Catholic, or be he liberal, enlightened Protestant, no one can read this work without crying out: "The finger of God is here."

No serious inquirer after truth should be without this work. It should occupy a conspicuous place in every Catholic library.

Wishing you the success you so well merit,
I remain, most respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
✠ JOHN,
Bishop of Buffalo.

ERIE, PA., March 15, 1864.

GENTLEMEN: I am right glad you have given us an American edition of Marshall's exhaustive work on "Christian Missions." My acquaintance with it had made me hope for this, which you have realized; and that you have done it in our present difficulties, evinces your rare zeal and most laudable enterprise. It is a work I would wish every Catholic family to possess; because, next to the perusal of the Lives of the Saints, it is calculated to edify and instruct, being, in fact, a record of the heroic actions and endurance of apostles, saints, and martyrs. And if Protestants, too, would but peruse it, many a doubting but honestly inquiring mind would find where truth is, by seeing in the different results of missionary effort where is the finger of God and where his blessing.

I trust that your enterprising and enlightened zeal will be appreciated by Catholics and all, in taking of you not merely this, but several subsequent editions.

Yours in Christ,

✠ J. M. Young,
Bishop of Erie.

Messrs. D. & J. Sadlier & Co., New-York:

Gentlemen: That the God of Christianity works by the Church and not by the sects, is a truth which, though believed by Catholics, and very generally suspected by non-Catholics, remained yet to be established by the evidence of authorities and facts. It is this that Mr. Marshall has undertaken to do, and how patiently and laboriously he has accomplished the task is apparent enough in the two volumes he has given us. The extensive range of search required was hardly possible to any but one occupying the position of the author. The facts and authorities, both in number and variety, and in their unquestionable character, showing a marvellous uniformity of results under the most diversified conditions of nations and tribes, and through a long series of years, fully warrant, upon the strictest principles of induction, the conclusion reached, and leave no room for doubt in any thoughtful and truth-loving mind as to the means and agencies which have the sanction of divine authority for the conversion of men. To all such the work is earnestly recommended, as well as to all Catholics, and above all, to those whom God has set apart in the holy ministry in this country to be apostles of his truth to the Greek and the barbarian, that they may see revealed in the lives and example of holy missionaries the secret which gives fruit to labors and crowns effort with success. The nature of the work required amplest details, but these are relieved of all irksomeness by the manner in which they are given, and the facts and authorities are so interspersed with historical allusions, together with judicious reflections and profound observations, as to render the book invaluable to every clergyman and every lover of truth, as they will find it greatly serviceable also for purposes besides the one directly contemplated in its pages.

We sincerely thank the Messrs. Sadlier for placing this book within the reach of the American people, and trust that their enterprise will meet the appreciation it so justly merits. That this book shall accomplish the good for which it is, we humbly hope, in the designs of God, intended, will depend much on the coöperation of the faithful. To those who love their religion it will be a pleasure as well as a duty to assist in this as in every other effort to make its divine claims known to the unbelieving world.

Messrs. D. & J. Sadlier & Co.:

Gentlemen: Your late excellent publication, Marshall's "Christian Missions," has been for some days on my table, and I regret that many urgent duties have prevented me from acknowledging its receipt before the present date.

I regard this useful work as an invaluable contribution to our ecclesiastical literature, and as supplying a great want which has long been felt. It is the most extensive and satisfactory work on the important subject of Christian missions that has yet come to my notice.

I feel assured that it will meet with the extensive circulation to which its learning and research so justly entitle it.

I remain, gentlemen, truly yours in Christ,

✠ JAMES,
Bishop of Chicago.

Messrs. D. & J. Sadlier & Co.:

DEAR SIRS: With the sincerest thanks to you, do I accept of the copy of Marshall's celebrated work, "Christian Missions," which you have so kindly forwarded to me. Indeed, I had already bespoken this work, induced principally by the most favorable criticisms which it had elicited all through Germany, where it caused, at its first appearance, quite an excitement, both amongst Catholics and Protestants; for such a general historical review of Catholic missions, especially when contrasted with those of the various Protestant sects, has been truly a desideratum of our times. A German writer, Edw. Michelis, in his volume, "Peoples and Missions of Oceanica," Munster, 1847, complained bitterly because of the neglect with which the historical part of the Catholic missions of the more recent periods were treated; he called it a serious injustice on the part of Catholics, committed against our missionaries, in not acknowledging, as it were, their arduous labors and happy results in and for the cause of Christianity and civilization — whilst Protestants, notwithstanding visible sterility of their missions, exerted all their zeal in cultivating that branch of history, to the wanton prejudice of the missions of the Catholic Church.

A comprehensive view, therefore, of facts and successes of the Catholic missions, such as your truly enterprising firm has given us by reproducing Marshall's renowned work also in our country, must be welcome to every Catholic heart and lover of truth, since he cannot fail, by an attentive perusal of it, to see and rejoice at the consoling evidence with which God has sealed His perpetual assistance to the ministry of His Church.

I am, dear sirs, very respectfully,

✠ JOHN M. HENNI,
Bishop of Milwaukee.

PORTLAND, March 29, 1864.

GENTLEMEN: Please to accept my thanks for a copy of your beautiful edition of Marshall's "Christian Missions." This most interesting and instructive work, which is a valuable accession to our limited Catholic literature, merits the appreciation of our community. I trust that your generous enterprise in placing it within the reach of the greater number, will be rewarded by a liberal patronage.

With sincere regard, I remain
Yours truly in Christ,

Messrs. D. & J. Sadlier:

GENTLEMEN: I have delayed rather long to thank you for the admirable work of Marshall on Missions, which you were kind enough to send me. It is a work full of interest, proving better than controversy the divinity of our holy religion. I read it through with unabated pleasure, and I would be happy to be able to promote its circulation. Respectfully yours, etc.,

PITTSBURGH, March 23, 1864.

DEAR SIRS: I thank you kindly for the present you have sent to me, that is, the work of Mr. Marshall, entitled "Christian Missions." You have rendered a good service to the Catholics of America by republishing this excellent work. What Balmes has accomplished by his famous work in regard to Protestantism and Catholicity compared in their effects on the civilization of Europe, Marshall has accomplished in regard to the Protestant and Catholic Missions compared in their agents and results all over the world. Such a work was much needed; it has filled up a vacuum which was much felt in our English Catholic literature.

I must make a little apology for not having answered sooner; my absence from home has been the cause of it.

I remain, dear sirs, with much esteem and gratitude,
Your devoted in Christ,
✠ M. DOMENEC,
Bishop of Pittsburgh.

BURLINGTON, VT., March 22, 1864.

GENTLEMEN: I think you deserve great credit for publishing the excellent work of T. W. M. Marshall on "Christian Missions." I cheerfully recommend it, and hope it will have a very large circulation.

Please accept my thanks for sending me a copy of it.

Respectfully yours,
✠ LOUIS,
Bishop of Burlington.

Messrs. D. & J. Sadlier & Co.: FORT WAYNE, March 22, 1864.

GENTLEMEN: I am much obliged to you for a copy of that truly valuable work, Marshall's "Christian Missions," recently published by you with such care and taste. I know of no work that I feel more pleasure in recommending; and I do not say too much by stating that I desire to see it in every family.

Yours, very respectfully,

✠ JOHN H. LUERS,
Bishop of Fort Wayne.

Messrs. D. & J. Sadlier & Co.: DUBUQUE, March 26, 1864.

GENTLEMEN: Many thanks for the copy of Marshall's "Christian Missions," which you were pleased to send me. From a cursory view of the work, I consider it a very useful accession to our Catholic literature, and one that fully accomplishes the end proposed by the author.

So much pleased have I been with the work, that I shall feel obliged by your sending to my address two more copies of it.

With deepest respects, yours sincerely,

✠ CLEMENT SMYTH,
Bishop of Dubuque.

Messrs. D. & J. Sadlier & Co., New-York:

SIRS: I thank you for that very interesting work you sent me, "Marshall's Christian Missions." Here follows my approbation.

I approve very much of "Marshall's Christian Missions, their Agents, and their Results." It is a very useful and learned work—an admirable work—compiled with great care and industry from innumerable authorities.

Messrs. Sadlier & Co.: ALTON, 1st October, 1864.

DEAR SIRS: Please excuse me for having, through forgetfulness, not sooner acknowledged and thanked you for the celebrated work of Marshall's, "Christian Missions." I cordially recommend it to the faithful of our diocese, not only as a new addition to our literature, but as a book very well adapted for our time, against the wide-spread evil of indifferentism. May every Catholic reader learn by it how to appreciate the precious pearl of the holy faith of his ancestors.

May your labors be crowned with success.

I remain, gentlemen, respectfully your obedient servant,

✠ HENRY DAMIAN,
Bishop of Alton.

Messrs. Sadlier & Co.: BALTIMORE, Easter Monday, 1864.

GENTLEMEN: I thank you for the copy of Marshall's great work on "Catholic Missions." I have not had time to read it, but I am informed by those who have read it, and who are in the highest degree qualified to form a judgment on the subject, that it is a work of extraordinary merit. On all sides I hear the highest praise bestowed on the work—bestowed on it by those whose commendation is praise, indeed. From all that I learn and fully believe, the press in this country has seldom, if ever, imposed a debt of greater magnitude on the cause of religion than you have done in giving us this work. For this I thank you, gentlemen; and I feel that I cannot wish you any thing better than that you may be duly rewarded for giving to the public Marshall's "Christian Missions."

I am, gentlemen, with best wishes and many thanks,

H. B. COSKERY,

Administrator of the Diocese of Baltimore

Messrs. D. & J. Sadlier & Co.: NEW-YORK, March 28, 1864.

GENTLEMEN: I have received your kind letter, and also a copy of Marshall's "Christian Missions," just published by you.

I was much pleased to learn that you had published this great work. It is a work of rare merit, and well calculated to do a vast amount of good. It proves clearly how much has been accomplished by Catholic missionaries, and how little has been done by Protestant missionaries, notwithstanding the vast expenditure of money. Catholics should read it to see what the Church is doing, and Protestants to see how little their missionaries are doing. It should have a place in every Catholic library, and it ought to be in the hands of every Catholic family. I trust that it will have a large circulation in this country.

I remain, with great respect, your obedient servant,

WILLIAM STARRS,

Administrator of the Diocese of New-York.

MESSRS. WM. KNABE & CO.: Gentlemen: I have great pleasure in certifying that I have tried your Square Pianos, and find them equal, if not superior, to any in this country. Among the great qualities which distinguish them, is the evenness of tone, the easy and agreeable touch and volume of tone. Wishing you all the success which you so highly deserve,

I am, sirs, yours, very truly,

S. THALBERG.

Translated from the French.

After having played on the Piano of Messrs. Knabe & Co., it is impossible to bear testimony to their qualities, which have acquired for them the eminent reputation which they enjoy. The Pianos of their manufacture, on which I have played, are exceedingly remarkable for their qualities of tone. The bass is powerful, without harshness, and the upper notes sweet, clear, and harmoniously mellow, (chrystalin,) and I do not hesitate to express, in regard to these instruments, my entire satisfaction, and to declare that they are equal, if not superior, to the best manufactured in Europe or this country by the most celebrated makers.

Messrs. DECKER BROTHERS:

Gentlemen: It gives me great pleasure to say that the piano of your make, which has been in use in our institution for some time, gives universal satisfaction, having proved to be a first-rate instrument in every respect. There is certainly no better test of the qualities of an instrument to be had than is afforded by school use. The best piano is liable to deteriorate under such circumstances, but yours is to day as rich and brilliant in tone, as when it first arrived here, and the action is in the best possible condition. The thorough excellence of the workmanship is thus fully proved. I cannot help thinking that, by continuing to furnish such superior instruments, you will soon occupy a leading position in the business, in which, by exercise of skill and industry, you have already gained a most honorable standing.

Yours, etc.
